

Document Title:	Privacy Notice
Date of Issue:	November 2019
Version:	2.0

Introduction of The Data Protection Act 2018 (“DPA 2018”) and the General Data Protection Regulation (“GDPR”) impose certain legal obligations in connection with the processing of personal data.

Eversley & California FC is a data controller within the meaning of the GDPR and we process personal data. The club’s contact details are shown on this letterhead. We may amend this privacy notice from time to time. If we do so, we will supply you with and/or otherwise make available to you a copy of the amended privacy notice.

Where we act as a data processor on behalf of a data controller (for example, when processing subscription payments or registration bodies, or statutory sanction payments), we will provide an additional schedule setting out required information as part of that agreement. That additional schedule should be read in conjunction with this privacy notice. The purposes for which we intend to process personal data.

We intend to process personal data for the following purposes:

- To enable us to supply services to you as a member.
- To fulfil our obligations under relevant laws in force from time to time (e.g. The Children Act 2004 and other safeguarding regulations)
- To comply with professional obligations, to which we are subject as an affiliated club to the Hampshire Football Association or the Football Association (The FA)
- To use in the investigation and/or defence of potential complaints, disciplinary proceedings and legal proceedings.
- To enable us to invoice you for our services and investigate/address any attendant fee disputes that may have arisen.
- To contact you about other services we provide which may be of interest to you if you have consented to us doing so.

The legal bases for our intended processing of personal data

Our intended processing of personal data has the following legal bases:

- At the time you commenced membership of the club, you gave consent to our processing your personal data for the purposes listed above.
- The processing is necessary for the performance of our contract with you.
- The processing is necessary for compliance with legal obligations to which we are subject
- The processing is necessary for the purposes of the following legitimate interests which we pursue.

It is a requirement of our contract with you that you provide us with the personal data that we request. If you do not provide the information that we request, we may not be able to provide professional and membership services to you. If this is the case, we will not be able to commence acting or will need to cease to act.

Persons/organisations to whom we may give personal data

We may share your personal data with:

- The Football Association (The FA)
- Hampshire Football Association
- any third parties with whom you require or permit us to correspond
- the police and law enforcement agencies
- courts and tribunals
- the Information Commissioner's Office ("ICO")

We may need to share your personal data with the third parties identified above in order to comply with our legal obligations, including our legal obligations to you.

If you ask us not to share your personal data with such third parties we may need to cancel your membership. Transfers of personal data outside the EEA Your personal data will be processed in the EEA only.

Retention of personal data

When acting as a data controller and in accordance with recognised good practice for grassroots sports clubs, we will retain all of our records relating to you as follows:

- where membership data is held, data will be retained for the full term of the membership period.
- where personal bank details are held, data will be retained for the full term of any process arrangements that we enter in to with you.
- where we have an ongoing membership or client relationship, data which is needed for more than one year's financial or legal compliance is retained throughout the period of the relationship, but will be deleted 7 years after the end of the relationship unless you as our member or client ask us to retain it for a longer period. Our membership or contractual terms provide for the destruction of documents after 7 years and therefore agreement to the membership or contractual terms is taken as agreement to the retention of records for this period, and to their destruction thereafter.

You are responsible for retaining any information that we send to you and this will be supplied in a format agreed between us.

Access to Information

You have a right to request access to your personal data that we hold. Such requests are known as 'subject access requests' ("SARs"). Please provide all SARs in writing marked for the attention of The Data Controller. To help us provide the information you want and deal with your request more quickly, you should include enough details to enable us to verify your identity and locate the relevant information. For example, you should tell us:

- your date of birth
- previous or other name(s) you have used
- your previous addresses in the past five years
- personal reference number(s) that we may have given you, for example your membership number or a transaction reference
- what type of information you want to know If you do not have a personal reference number, you must send a copy of:
 - the back page of your passport or a copy of your driving licence; and
 - a recent utility bill.

DPA 2018 requires that we comply with a SAR promptly and in any event within one month of receipt. There are, however, some circumstances in which the law allows us to refuse to provide access to personal data in response to a SAR (e.g. if you have previously made a similar request and there has been little or no change to the data since we complied with the original request). We will not charge you for dealing with a SAR. You can ask someone else to request information on your behalf – for example, a friend, relative or solicitor. We must have your authority to respond to a SAR made on your behalf. You can provide such authority by signing a letter which states that you authorise the person concerned to write to us for information about you, and/or receive our reply. Where you are a data controller and we act for you as a data processor (e.g. by processing membership subscriptions or statutory sanctions), we will assist you with SARs on the same basis as is set out above.

Putting things right (the right to rectification)

You have a right to obtain the rectification of any inaccurate personal data concerning you that we hold. You also have a right to have any incomplete personal data that we hold about you completed. Should you become aware that any personal data that we hold about you is inaccurate and/or incomplete, please inform us immediately so we can correct and/or complete it. Deleting your records (the right to erasure)

In certain circumstances you have a right to have the personal data that we hold about you erased.

Further information is available on the ICO website (www.ico.org.uk). If you would like your personal data to be erased, please inform us immediately and we will consider your request. In certain circumstances we have the right to refuse to comply with a request for erasure. If applicable, we will supply you with the reasons for refusing your request. The right to restrict processing and the right to object.

In certain circumstances you have the right to 'block' or suppress the processing of personal data or to object to the processing of that information. Further information is available on the ICO website (www.ico.org.uk). Please inform us immediately if you want us to cease to process your information or you object to processing so that we can consider what action, if any, is appropriate. Obtaining and reusing personal data (the right to data portability) In certain circumstances you have the right to be provided with the personal data that we hold about you in a machine-readable format, e.g. so that the data can easily be provided to a new professional adviser.

Further information is available on the ICO website (www.ico.org.uk). The right to data portability only applies:

- to personal data an individual has provided to a controller;
- where the processing is based on the individual's consent or for the performance of a contract; and
- when processing is carried out by automated means We will respond to any data portability requests made to us without undue delay and within one month. We may extend the period by a further two months where the request is complex or a number of requests are received but we will inform you within one month of the receipt of the request and explain why the extension is necessary. Withdrawal of consent Where you have consented to our processing of your personal data, you have the right to withdraw that consent at any time. Please inform us immediately if you wish to withdraw your consent. Please note:
 - the withdrawal of consent does not affect the lawfulness of earlier processing
 - if you withdraw your consent, we may not be able to continue to provide services to you
 - even if you withdraw your consent, it may remain lawful for us to process your data on another legal basis (e.g. because we have a legal obligation to continue to process your data)

Automated decision making

We do not intend to use automated decision-making in relation to your personal data.

Complaints

If you have requested details of the information we hold about you and you are not happy with our response, or you think we have not complied with the GDPR or DPA 2018 in some other way, you can complain to us.

Please send any complaints to The Data Controller. If you are not happy with our response, you have a right to lodge a complaint with the ICO (www.ico.org.uk).
