A NOTE FROM JERI

Did you think you would be done grieving in a few months or maybe a year at the most? Put away your calendar because grief cannot be measured by days, weeks, or years. You will feel frustrated if you put a timetable on this process. Just remember that there is no right or wrong way to grieve. Do not put expectations on yourself. You are unique and so is your grief. So, take the pressure off yourself; you will feel better, and you will walk this journey more easily. By attending the grief seminars in September, you will also realize that you are not alone. We are here to walk this journey with you.

Think of how you grew to love the person you are grieving. It was its own beautiful experience. Grieving is as unique as the love you shared with that special person.

A couple important notes:

- Just a friendly reminder: In case of cancellations due to inclement weather for any of our events, call the person who is taking the reservations. If you have any questions about an event, please call Jeri at 320-491-5409.
- As requested by restaurants, please do not arrive more than 15 minutes early. That helps ensure everyone is set up for our group!
- Throughout the newsletter, AOB stands for Anderson's on Broadway. BNC is the former Jan's Place Restaurant east of the fairgrounds.
