PROCESSIONAL

“Immortal, Invisible, God Only Wise”

St. Denio (H 423)

Immortal, Invisible,
God only wise,
In light inaccessible
Hid from our eyes,
Most blessed, most glorious,
The Ancient of Days,
Almighty, victorious,
Thy great Name we praise.

Unresting, unhasting,
And silent as light,
Nor wanting, nor wasting,
Thou rulest in might;
Thy justice like mountains
High soaring above
Thy cloud, which are fountains
Of goodness and love.

To all life thou givest,
To both great and small;
In all life thou livest,
The true life of all;
We blossom and flourish,
Like leaves on the tree,
Then wither and perish;
But nought changeth thee.

COLLECT FOR PURITY

Alleluia. Christ is risen.

The Lord is risen indeed.
Alleluia.

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord.

Amen.

COLLECT OF THE DAY

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Let us pray.

O God, the protector of all who trust in you, without whom nothing is strong, nothing is holy: Increase and multiply upon us your mercy; that, with you as our ruler and guide, we may so pass through things temporal, that we lose not the things eternal; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

Amen.

First Reading

Genesis 29:15-28

Laban said to Jacob, “You shouldn’t have to work for free just because you are my relative. Tell me what you would like to be paid.”

Now Laban had two daughters: the older was named Leah and the younger Rachel. Leah had delicate eyes, but Rachel had a beautiful figure and was good-looking. Jacob loved Rachel and said, “I will work for you for seven years for Rachel, your younger daughter.”

Laban said, “I’d rather give her to you than to another man. Stay with me.”

Jacob worked for Rachel for seven years, but it seemed like a few days because he loved her. Jacob said to Laban, “The time has come. Give me my wife so that I may sleep with her.” So Laban invited all the people of that place and prepared a banquet. However, in the evening, he took his daughter Leah and brought her to Jacob, and he slept with her.

Laban had given his servant Zilpah to his daughter Leah as her servant. In the morning, there she was—Leah! Jacob said to Laban, “What have you done to me? Didn’t I work for you to have Rachel? Why did you betray me?”

Laban said, “Where we live, we don’t give the younger woman before the oldest. Complete the celebratory week with this woman. Then I will give you this other woman too for your work, if you work for me seven more years.” So that is what Jacob did. He completed the celebratory week with this woman, and then Laban gave him his daughter Rachel as his wife.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

PSALM

Psalm 105:1-11, 45b

Give thanks to the Lord; call upon his name;
make his deeds known to all people!

Sing to God; sing praises to the Lord;
dwell on all his wondrous works!

Give praise to God's holy name!
Let the hearts rejoice of all those seeking the Lord!

Pursue the Lord and his strength;
seek his face always!

Remember the wondrous works he has done,
all his marvelous works,
and the justice he declared—

you who are the offspring of Abraham, his servant, and the children of Jacob, his chosen ones.

The Lord—he is our God. His justice is everywhere throughout the whole world.

God remembers his covenant forever,
the word he commanded to a thousand generations,

which he made with Abraham,
the solemn pledge he swore to Isaac.

God set it up as binding law for Jacob,
as an eternal covenant for Israel,

promising, “I hereby give you the land of Canaan as your allotted inheritance.”

Praise the Lord!

Second Reading

Romans 8:26-39

In the same way, the Spirit comes to help our weakness. We don't know what we should pray, but the Spirit himself pleads our case with unexpressed groans. The one who searches hearts knows how the Spirit thinks, because he pleads for the saints, consistent with God's will. We know that God works all things together for good for the ones who love God, for those who are called according to his purpose.

We know this because God knew them in advance, and he decided in advance that they would be conformed to the image of his Son. That way his Son would be the first of many brothers and sisters. Those who God decided in advance would be conformed to his Son, he also called. Those whom he called, he also made righteous. Those whom he made righteous, he also glorified.

So what are we going to say about these things? If God is for us, who is against us? He didn't spare his own Son but gave him up for us all. Won't he also freely give us all things with him?

Who will bring a charge against God's elect people? It is God who acquits them. Who is going to convict them? It is Christ Jesus who died, even more, who was raised, and who also is at God's right side. It is Christ Jesus who also pleads our case for us.

Who will separate us from Christ's love?
Will we be separated by trouble, or distress, or harassment, or famine, or nakedness, or danger, or sword? As it is written,

We are being put to death all day long for your sake.

We are treated like sheep for slaughter.

But in all these things we win a sweeping victory through the one who loved us. I'm convinced that nothing can separate us from God's love in Christ Jesus our Lord: not death or life, not angels or rulers, not present things or future things, not powers or height or depth, or any other thing that is created.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Please stand as you are able.

SEQUENCE HYMN

“Open Our Eyes, Lord”

Bob Cull

Open our eyes, Lord,
We want to see Jesus,
To reach out and touch Him,
and say that we love Him.

Open our ears, Lord,
and help us to listen.
Open our eyes, Lord,
We want to see Jesus.

Open our eyes, Lord,
We want to see Jesus,
To reach out and touch Him,
and say that we love Him.

Open our ears, Lord,
and help us to listen.
Open our eyes, Lord,
We want to see Jesus.

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Matthew 13:31-33, 44-52

He told another parable to them: “The kingdom of heaven is like a mustard seed that someone took and planted in his field. It’s the smallest of all seeds. But when it’s grown, it’s the largest of all vegetable plants. It becomes a tree so that the birds in the sky come and nest in its branches.”

Matthew 13:31-33, 44-52

He told them another parable: “The kingdom of heaven is like yeast, which a woman took and hid in a bushel of wheat flour until the yeast had worked its way through all the dough.”

“The kingdom of heaven is like a treasure that somebody hid in a field, which someone else found and covered up. Full of joy, the finder sold everything and bought that field.

Matthew 13:31-33, 44-52

“Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant in search of fine pearls. When he found one very precious pearl, he went and sold all that he owned and bought it.

“Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a net that people threw into the lake and gathered all kinds of fish.

Matthew 13:31-33, 44-52

When it was full, they pulled it to the shore, where they sat down and put the good fish together into containers. But the bad fish they threw away. That's the way it will be at the end of the present age. The angels will go out and separate the evil people from the righteous people, and will throw the evil ones into a burning furnace. People there will be weeping and grinding their teeth.

Matthew 13:31-33, 44-52

“Have you understood all these things?”
Jesus asked.

They said to him, “Yes.”

Then he said to them, “Therefore, every legal expert who has been trained as a disciple for the kingdom of heaven is like the head of a household who brings old and new things out of their treasure chest.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Open our eyes, Lord,
We want to see Jesus,
To reach out and touch Him,
and say that we love Him.

Open our ears, Lord,
and help us to listen.
Open our eyes, Lord,
We want to see Jesus.

“May All Children”

Kenneth K. Guilmartin

May, may all, may all children,
May all people ev'rywhere
Hear this prayer.

May, may all, may all children,
May all people ev'rywhere
Live in peace.

Sweet peace.
Peaceful minds,
Peaceful hearts,
Peace on earth.
Sweet peace on earth.

Sermon

Reverend Stephen Haggerty

The Nicene Creed

As the Celebrant stands, the congregation is invited to stand and say together:

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord,
Jesus Christ, the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father, God
from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.

Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayers of The People

The Deacon will bid the prayers

O God, our refuge and strength, In this challenging time throughout the world, we come before you offering our prayers on behalf of those in need, throughout the Church and the world.

*Individuals are invited to read the following prayers.
Multiple voices are encouraged.*

For the Church, that it may not grow weary of proclaiming and living the gospel.

Help us to serve as beacons of hope to a suffering world. We pray for creative minds and determined spirits to meet the challenges ahead.

Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

God of power, send your Spirit to lead your church. We pray for our church leaders, especially for Sean, our Presiding Bishop, Mark, Gayle and Mark our Bishops, and all who minister in your name.

Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

God of wisdom, we ask you to bless the representatives we have elected; grant that through their discussions and decisions we may solve our problems effectively, enhance the well-being of our nation, and achieve together a fairer and more united society.

We ask for your guidance for Donald our President, Abigail our Governor, and Phyllis, Chair At-Large of the Board of Supervisors.

Grant us discernment as we dismantle systems of oppression and build both a country and world rooted in justice.

Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

For those who are sick, May they have access to medical care and regain their strength and health; grant them your healing grace. Give strength to all who are caring for loved ones.

Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

For all those who minister to the most vulnerable among us; fill them with your Holy Spirit as they work to be your healing hands and feet to all in need.

Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

Bless their hands as they work, their voices as they speak, and their hearts as they show compassion.

Grant them maturity and wisdom to grow in the understanding of the needs around them, courage to step forward even when it's hard, and joy in knowing they are making a difference.

Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

May their efforts plant seeds of change that grow into a stronger, kinder community for all where God is present in all things.

Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

For those who grieve the loss of loved ones and navigate life without them.
May they know the consolation of your love and the promise of your eternal life.

Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

For all who have died in the hope of the resurrection, and those whose faith is known to you alone, that, with all the saints, they may have rest in that place where there is no pain or grief, but life eternal.

Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

For all those people and situations on our hearts,
which we now offer to God, either silently or aloud.

(A moment of silence.)

Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

Keep us, good Lord, under the shadow of your mercy. Bless us with the comfort knowing that nothing can separate us from your love in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Amen.

CONFESSION OF SIN

(The Celebrant bids the confession...)

Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you
in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.

We have not loved you
with our whole heart;
we have not loved
our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry
and we humbly repent.

For the sake of your Son
Jesus Christ,
Have mercy on us
and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name.
Amen.

ABSOLUTION

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life.

Amen.

The peace of the Lord
be always with you.

The Great Thanksgiving

Enriching Our Worship Prayer 2

*Please stand as you are able.
The bells are rung three times as a reminder that we are now focused on the

The Lord be with you.
And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.
We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

We praise you and we bless you,
holy and gracious God, source of life abundant. From before time you made ready the creation. Your Spirit moved over the deep and brought all things into being:
sun, moon, and stars; earth, winds, and waters; and every living thing.

You made us in your image, and taught us to walk in your ways. But we rebelled against you, and wandered far away; and yet, as a mother cares for her children, you would not forget us. Time and again you called us to live in the fullness of your love.

And so this day we join with Saints and Angels in the chorus of praise that rings through eternity, lifting our voices to magnify you as we sing:

SANCTUS

“Holy, Holy, Holy”

Mass for the Healing of the World

Trevor Thomson

Holy, Holy, Holy,
Holy, Holy, Holy,
Lord God of hosts.
Lord God of hosts.
Heaven and earth
Heaven and earth
are full of your glory.
are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest!
Hosanna in the highest!
Hosanna in the highest!
Hosanna in the highest!

Blessed is he who comes,
Blessed is he who comes,
In the name of the Lord,
In the name of the Lord,

Hosanna in the highest!
Hosanna in the highest!
Hosanna in the highest!
Hosanna in the highest!

Glory and honor and praise to you, holy and living God. To deliver us from the power of sin and death and to reveal the riches of your grace, you looked with favor upon Mary, your willing servant, that she might conceive and bear a son,
Jesus the holy child of God.

Living among us, Jesus loved us. He broke bread with outcasts and sinners, healed the sick, and proclaimed good news to the poor. He yearned to draw all the world to himself yet we were heedless of his call to walk in love.

Then, the time came for him to complete upon the cross the sacrifice of his life, and to be glorified by you. On the night before he died for us, Jesus was at table with his friends. He took bread, gave thanks to you, broke it, and gave it to them, and said: “Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

As supper was ending, Jesus took the cup of wine. Again, he gave thanks to you, gave it to them, and said:

“Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Now gathered at your table, O God of all creation, and remembering Christ, crucified and risen, who was and is and is to come, we offer to you our gifts of bread and wine, and ourselves, a living sacrifice.

Pour out your Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Body and Blood of Christ. Breathe your Spirit over the whole earth and make us your new creation, the Body of Christ given for the world you have made.

In the fullness of time bring us, with St. David and all your saints, from every tribe and language and people and nation, to feast at the banquet prepared from the foundation of the world. Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, to you be honor, glory, and praise, for ever and ever.

AMEN.

The bells are rung three times after the "Great Amen" as a reminder of the importance of the congregation's assent and affirmation of the Eucharistic Prayer.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

“Our Father”

Jim Strathee

Our Father,
Our Father,
Who art in Heaven,
Who art in Heaven,
Hallowed be Thy Name.
Hallowed be Thy Name.

Thy kingdom come,
Thy kingdom come,
Thy will be done,
Thy will be done,
On earth,
On earth,
As it is in heaven,
As it is in heaven,

Give us this day,
Give us this day,
The food we need,
The food we need,
And forgive our sins,
And forgive our sins,
As we forgive those,
As we forgive those,
Who sin against us all,
Who sin against us all,

And lead us not,
And lead us not,
Into temptation,
Into temptation,
But deliver us,
But deliver us,
From all evil,
From all evil,

For thine is the kingdom
and the power
and the glory forever.

For thine is the kingdom
and the power
and the glory forever.

Forever,
Forever,
And ever,
And ever,

Our Father,
Our Father,
Who art in Heaven,
Who art in Heaven,
Hallowed be Thy Name.

The Breaking of the Bread

So, come, you who have much faith and you who have little, you who have been here often and you who have not been here long, you who have tried to follow and you who have failed. Come, because it is the Lord who invites you. It is his will that those who want him should meet him here.

COMMUNION HYMN

“God the Maker”

The Porter's Gate

We bring our time, we bring our treasure,
We lay them down before Your throne.
You will make them something greater,
More than we could ever know.

We bring our gifts, we bring our power,
Place them in Your sovereign hand.
You will take what we have given,
You will use it for Your plan.

Glory be to God, the Maker
Glory be to God, Creator
Take our time, use our treasure,
Turn them into something greater.
Glory be to God, the Maker

Though our hearts are weak from failure,
Broken dreams and failed attempts,
Show us that in every season,
You will fill our emptiness.

Glory be to God, the Maker
Glory be to God, Creator
Take our time, use our treasure,
Turn them into something greater.
Glory be to God, the Maker

COMMUNION HYMN

“How Great Thou Art”

S.K. Hine (LEVAS 60)

O Lord my God,
When I in awesome wonder Consider all the worlds thy hands have made,
I see the stars,
I hear the rolling thunder,
Thy pow'r throughout
The universe displayed.

Then sings my soul, my Savior God,
to Thee:

How great Thou art,
How great Thou art!

Then sings my soul, my Savior God,
to Thee:

How great Thou art,
How great Thou art!

When through the woods
And forest glades I wander,
And hear the birds
Sing sweetly in the trees,
When I look down
From lofty mountain grandeur,
And hear the brook,
And feel the gentle breeze.

Then sings my soul, my Savior God,
to Thee:

How great Thou art,
How great Thou art!

Then sings my soul, my Savior God,
to Thee:

How great Thou art,
How great Thou art!

When Christ shall come
With shout of acclamation
And take me home,
What joy shall fill my heart!
Then I shall bow
in humble adoration,
And there proclaim,
My God, how great thou art!

Then sings my soul, my Savior God,
to Thee:

How great Thou art,
How great Thou art!

Then sings my soul, my Savior God,
to Thee:

How great Thou art,
How great Thou art!

Post-Communion Prayer

Celebrant: Let us pray together.

Lord Jesus Christ, you have put your life into our hands; now we put our lives into yours. Take us, renew us and remake us. What we have been is past; what we shall be, through you, still awaits us. Lead us on.
Take us with you. Amen.

Final Blessing

May the risen Christ, who fills the world with light and life, shine in your hearts, strengthen your faith, and send you forth in witness and love; and the blessing of God Almighty, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, be with you now and always.

Amen.

RECESSIONAL

“Blessed Be Your Name”

Matt Redman

Blessed be Your name
In the land that is plentiful,
Where Your streams of abundance
flow,
Blessed be Your name.

Blessed be Your name
When I'm found in the desert place, Though I walk through the wilderness,
Blessed be Your name.

Every blessing You pour out, I'll
turn back to praise;
When the darkness closes in, Lord,
Still I will say:

Blessed be the name of the Lord,
Blessed be Your name!
Blessed be the name of the Lord,
Blessed be Your glorious name!

Blessed be Your name
When the sun's shining down on me,
When the world's all as it should be,
Blessed be Your name.

Every blessing You pour out, I'll
turn back to praise;
When the darkness closes in, Lord,
Still I will say:

Blessed be the name of the Lord,
Blessed be Your name!
Blessed be the name of the Lord,
Blessed be Your glorious name!

Blessed be the name of the Lord,
Blessed be Your name!
Blessed be the name of the Lord,
Blessed be Your glorious name!

Let us go forth in the name of Christ. Alleluia, alleluia!

Thanks be to God! Alleluia, alleluia!
