FIRST READING: Genesis 1:1-2:4a

Lector: A reading from the Book of Genesis

When God began to create the heavens and the earth— the earth was without shape or form, it was dark over the deep sea, and God’s wind swept over the waters— God said, “Let there be light.” And so light appeared. God saw how good the light was. God separated the light from the darkness. God named the light Day and the darkness Night.

There was evening and there was morning: the first day.

God said, “Let there be a dome in the middle of the waters to separate the waters from each other.” God made the dome and separated the waters under the dome from the waters above the dome. And it happened in that way. God named the dome Sky.

There was evening and there was morning: the second day.

God said, “Let the waters under the sky come together into one place so that the dry land can appear.” And that’s what happened. God named the dry land Earth, and he named the gathered waters Seas. God saw how good it was. God said, “Let the earth grow plant life: plants yielding seeds and fruit trees bearing fruit with seeds inside it, each according to its kind throughout the earth.” And that’s what happened. The earth produced plant life: plants yielding seeds, each according to its kind, and trees bearing fruit with seeds inside it, each according to its kind. God saw how good it was.

There was evening and there was morning: the third day.

God said, “Let there be lights in the dome of the sky to separate the day from the night. They will mark events, sacred seasons, days, and years. They will be lights in the dome of the sky to shine on the earth.” And that’s what happened. God made the stars and two great lights: the larger light to rule over the day and the smaller light to rule over the night. God put them in the dome of the sky to shine on the earth, to rule over the day and over the night, and to separate the light from the darkness. God saw how good it was.

There was evening and there was morning: the fourth day.

God said, “Let the waters swarm with living things, and let birds fly above the earth up in the dome of the sky.” God created the great sea animals and all the tiny living things that swarm in the waters, each according to its kind, and all the winged birds, each according to its kind. God saw how good it was. Then God blessed them: “Be fertile and multiply and fill the waters in the seas, and let the birds multiply on the earth.”

There was evening and there was morning: the fifth day.

God said, “Let the earth produce every kind of living thing: livestock, crawling things, and wildlife.” And that’s what happened. God made every kind of wildlife, every kind of livestock, and every kind of creature that crawls on the ground. God saw how good it was. Then God said, “Let us make humanity in our image to resemble us so that they may take charge of the fish of the sea, the birds in the sky, the livestock, all the earth, and all the crawling things on earth.”

God created humanity in God's own image,
in the divine image God created them,
male and female God created them.

God blessed them and said to them, "Be fertile and multiply; fill the earth and master it. Take charge of the fish of the sea, the birds in the sky, and everything crawling on the ground." Then God said, "I now give to you all the plants on the earth that yield seeds and all the trees whose fruit produces its seeds within it. These will be your food. To all wildlife, to all the birds in the sky, and to everything crawling on the ground—to everything that breathes—I give all the green grasses for food." And that's what happened. God saw everything he had made: it was supremely good.

There was evening and there was morning: the sixth day.

The heavens and the earth and all who live in them were completed. On the sixth day God completed all the work that he had done, and on the seventh day God rested from all the work that he had done. God blessed the seventh day and made it holy, because on it God rested from all the work of creation. This is the account of the heavens and the earth when they were created.

On the day the Lord God made earth and sky—

PSALM: Psalm 8

We will read the Psalm responsively by whole verse.

<sup>1</sup> Lord, our Lord, how majestic
is your name throughout the earth!
You made your glory higher than heaven!

<sup>2</sup> From the mouths of nursing babies
you have laid a strong foundation
because of your foes,
in order to stop vengeful enemies.

<sup>3</sup> When I look up at your skies,
at what your fingers made—
the moon and the stars
that you set firmly in place—

<sup>4</sup> what are human beings
that you think about them;
what are human beings
that you pay attention to them?

<sup>5</sup>You've made them only slightly less than divine,
crowning them with glory and grandeur.

<sup>6</sup>You've let them rule over your handiwork,
putting everything under their feet—

<sup>7</sup>all sheep and all cattle,
the wild animals too,

<sup>8</sup>the birds in the sky,
the fish of the ocean,
everything that travels the pathways of the sea.

<sup>9</sup>Lord, our Lord, how majestic is your name throughout the earth!

SECOND READING: 2 Corinthians 13:11-13

Lector: A reading from Paul's second Letter to the Corinthians

Finally, brothers and sisters, good-bye. Put things in order, respond to my encouragement, be in harmony with each other, and live in peace—and the God of love and peace will be with you.

Say hello to each other with a holy kiss. All of God's people say hello to you.

The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

THE GOSPEL: Matthew 28:16-20

Celebrant: The Holy Gospel of Our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Now the eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain where Jesus told them to go. When they saw him, they worshipped him, but some doubted. Jesus came near and spoke to them, "I've received all authority in heaven and on earth. Therefore, go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to obey everything that I've commanded you. Look, I myself will be with you every day until the end of this present age."

DOK Brown Bag Lunch and Book Discussion

Mark your calendars and join the Daughters of the King on Saturday, June 13th at 11:00 am in the Adult Education Room as we discuss I Know Why the Caged Bird Sings by Maya Angelou. Bring your own lunch — water and lemonade will be provided. Everyone is welcome!

Youth Serve Camp: July 20th – 24th

Middle and High School Youth, 6th – 12th grade, are invited to make a difference in Loudoun County this summer. Each day, youth will meet at St. David's at 9:00 am for a breakfast devotional/prayer and instructions for the day. We will travel together to different locations each day, serve, followed by lunch, debrief, and fellowship. Pick up at St. David's at 1:00 pm. Cost is $100/person. Contact: mcarey@sdlife.org with any questions.

Kindness Rocks Project

Join us on the 3rd Sunday of every month after the 10:00 am service for the Kindness Rocks Project at St. David's! Together, we'll paint rocks with uplifting messages and place them in our rock garden to spread kindness and positivity throughout the community. It's a fun and creative way for people of all ages to come together, share love, and make a difference. Bring your creativity and help brighten someone's day, one rock at a time! Reach out to Maureen at mcarey@sdlife.org with questions or for more information.
