About Sr. Faustina

Sr. Faustina Jimoh, OP is a member of the Dominican Sisters of St. Catherine of Siena in Gusau, Nigeria. She has been a religious sister for 31yrs and has a background in Theology and pastoral ministry. Sister is involved in a variety of ministries, namely, pastoral, leadership, and education. She served on the general council of her congregation for four years after which she was elected Prioress (Superior) General of her congregation, a position she held for two terms of eight years. Upon completion of this period of leadership, she was again elected to serve on the international council of the Dominican Sisters in Rome as coordinator for the continent of Africa. She held this position for six years. In the field of pastoral engagement, Sr. Faustina has served in different Dioceses in Nigeria where she worked as youth chaplain, director of religious education, director of social communications, director of the Female Catechists Formation Centre, and a variety of other pastoral ministries in the different parishes where she has worked. In the area of education, Sr. Faustina is currently the president of the Kassie Braun Memorial Schools in Abakaliki, Nigeria. She is also managing a farm for her religious congregation and serves as a resource person for facilitating retreats, workshops, seminars, and chapters.
