The Knights, Ladies, and Junior Daughters of Knights of Peter Claver will be sponsoring an Easter egg hunt for the children of St. Patrick Catholic Church, Saturday, March 23rd from 12-3pm in the lower church. We will have fun, food, prizes and of course Easter eggs. There will be a sign up sheet at the back of the church starting Sunday, February 25th, so that we can have a head count. Please have your child bring a basket to the event to collect the Easter Eggs.

Thanks to the generosity of our parishioners this past year, we were able to help the following number of our neighbors who were in need during 2023. All of the monies given to our St. Vincent de Paul Society Conference went directly to help those in need on the Peninsula. The only administrative expense was the cost of our telephone line which was $307.56. Thank you all for your continued support of this very important ministry. We were very happy to resume our home visits this year. Maureen Corless

They kept the matter to themselves. (Mark 9:10)

Today we hear Mark's account of Jesus' transfiguration and get a snapshot of his divinity. Six days after predicting his death and resurrection, Jesus shows his glory to Peter, James, and John (Mark 8:31; 9:2-8). In a flash, the disciples' eyes are opened. They can see who Jesus truly is. He is more than a good rabbi, a miraculous healer, or a gifted preacher. He is greater than even Moses or Elijah! Jesus is God.

Jesus' disciples didn't fully grasp their mountaintop vision or how they would need to cling to it as Jesus headed toward the cross. They didn't know how their faith would be tested or how important it was that Jesus was more than just a man. And they didn't know what Jesus meant when he said he would die and rise again. But Jesus knew. That's why he told them to keep the revelation to themselves until he "had had risen from the dead" (Mark 9:9).

In his transfiguration, Jesus was giving his disciples a gift to sustain them for the day of his crucifixion. On that day there would not be three tents but three crosses. Jesus would not stand between Moses and Elijah; he would hang between "two revolutionaries" (Mark 15:27). On that day they would abandon their teacher and Lord to his cruel end. But Jesus' transfiguration not only helped the disciples during his crucifixion. Even more, it foreshadowed an even greater revelation of his divinity: the resurrection!

Jesus' glory was just as present on the cross as it was on the mountaintop. The disciples just couldn't see it. They needed a heavenly perspective—and so do we. That's why Jesus invites us to go up the mountain every day for a glimpse of his glory: to see Jesus, the Son of God, who will be with us always, to the end of time.

Congratulation to our Knights of Columbus Essay Contest Winners. Josie (8th grade) was our 1st place winner, Tradd (8th grade) 2nd place, and Vivi (8th grade) 3rd place. Great job! GO SAINTS!
