Northern Virginia Hispanic Chamber of Commerce Honored with International Trade Council's Go Global Award 2023

Providence, Rhode Island – October 8, 2023 – The Northern Virginia Hispanic Chamber of Commerce proudly announces its prestigious recognition at the Go Global Awards 2023 hosted by Rhode Island Commerce and the International Trade Council. The chamber has been honored in the esteemed International Trade Advancement category, a testament to its commitment to fostering global business connections and economic growth.

The Go Global Awards, held on October 8, 2023, in Providence, Rhode Island, brought together leaders and visionaries in the international trade community to celebrate the outstanding achievements and innovations from 125 business organizations from over 85 countries. The Northern Virginia Hispanic Chamber of Commerce emerged victorious in the International Trade Advancement category, a noteworthy acknowledgment of its dedication to advancing global trade initiatives.

“We have consistently demonstrated excellence in fostering international trade relationships, creating opportunities for businesses to expand their reach, and enhancing the global competitiveness of our members and partners alike. We understand that 95% of the World’s population and 80% of the world’s purchasing power is outside the United States, that 1 in 4 jobs in Virginia are related to international trade and furthermore, 75% of identified U.S. exporters are very small businesses with less than 20 employees.” said Susana Marino, President, and CEO of the chamber.

The Go Global Awards by the International Trade Council recognize organizations that have made significant contributions to the field of international trade. Winning in the International Trade
