

THE COACH PROMISE

Gameday Youth Basketball · Frisco, Texas

You showed up for these kids when you didn't have to. What follows isn't a list of rules. It's a shared promise between you and every kid, parent, and coach in this league about the experience we're building together.

FIVE COMMITMENTS

1 Keep your composure on the sideline.

My players need a coach who is steady. When things go sideways, I bring calm, not chaos. My sideline reflects the standard I set for my team.

2 Respect the officials.

Refs make mistakes. So do coaches. Arguing calls teaches my players that results matter more than character. I coach my team. I let the refs do their job.

3 Own your sideline.

The energy behind me is my responsibility. If a parent is crossing the line, I address it directly. My team's culture extends into the stands, and I take that seriously.

4 Compete hard and finish with class.

Winning with integrity is better than just winning. I'll teach my players that how you win says just as much as the fact that you did. Respect for the opponent is non-negotiable.

5 Keep the kids at the center of every decision.

On a tough day, this is the reset: is what I'm about to do or say good for the kids? If the answer is no, I stop. That's why we're all here.

Your kids will remember how you made them feel long after they forget the score.

COACH ACKNOWLEDGMENT

I have read the Gameday Coach Promise. I understand that as a coach, I set the tone for my team, my players, and everyone cheering for us. I am committed to making Gameday the kind of league every kid deserves.
