

THE PARENT PROMISE

Gameday Youth Basketball · Frisco, Texas

You are here because your kid needs you here. What follows is not a list of rules. It is a shared promise between every parent, coach, and player in this league about the experience we are building together.

FIVE COMMITMENTS

- 1 Cheer everything. Coach nothing.
My voice in the stands belongs to my kid, not the coaches or the refs. I am here to cheer, celebrate hustle, and lift the room. The coaching is handled.
- 2 Let the refs do their job.
Refs miss calls. Everyone does. When I argue from the stands, I teach my kid that results matter more than character. I trust the process and let the officials work.
- 3 Cheer for all the kids, not just mine.
The culture in this gym is shaped by everyone in it. I cheer great plays on both sides. I model the kind of sportsmanship I want my kid to grow up practicing.
- 4 Treat everyone in this building like a neighbor.
The refs, the scorekeepers, the Gameday staff, the other families. Everyone here showed up for the same reason I did. They deserve the same warmth I would want for myself.
- 5 Keep the kids at the center of every moment.
On a tough moment, this is my reset: is what I'm about to do or say good for the kids on this court? If the answer is no, I stop. That's why we're all here.

Your kids are watching how you handle this. Make it something worth watching.

PARENT ACKNOWLEDGMENT

I have read the Gameday Parent Promise. I understand that as a parent, I shape the experience for every kid in this gym, including my own. I am committed to making Gameday the kind of league every child deserves.
