Why Hire an Elder Law Firm to Coordinate Medicaid? Because We Know The Rules !

When it comes to the complicated process of applying for Medicaid in State of Florida and dealing with government agencies, families like having a qualified, professional law firm on their side. By hiring a law firm that specializes in Medicaid planning, you receive:

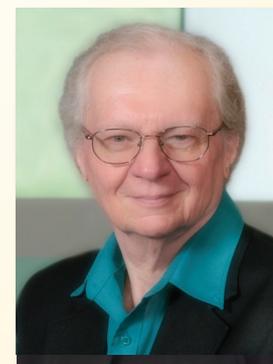

- Legal representation by an Attorney who:
  - Practices only in the area of Elder Law
  - Understands the Federal & State Medicaid Rules and Laws
  - Is a Certified Public Accountant
- Free Initial Consultation
- Preparation of all necessary Legal Documents
- Clients always meet with the Attorney
- Public Benefits Specialist
- Medicaid Specialist with 18 years' experience with Florida DCF
- Legal representation in 'Fair Hearings' if necessary
- Client advised on how to avoid future Medicaid Recovery
- Law firm prepares and submits 'Annual Medicaid Reviews' - required for future eligibility
- Attorney review of every client case to advise proper and legal planning options for obtaining Medicaid – including Asset Protection & Preservation
