School Office Hours:

Administrative Office hours are Monday through Thursday 8-5 Friday 8-4 (Except Holidays)

Observed Holidays:

New Year's Day, Memorial Day, Independence Day, Veteran's Day, Thanksgiving Day, Winter Break (approx. the last two weeks of the calendar year).

Entrance Requirements

All students enrolling at PI must:

- Be 18 years of age and show proof of U.S. high school diploma or equivalent.
- A valid photo ID must be provided.
- An enrollment agreement with PI must be completed.
- A minimum score of 17 on the Wonderlic SLE-Q assessment

Credit for Previous Training

To receive credit for previous paralegal educational courses a student needs to submit transcripts, course descriptions, and program catalog from previously attended educational institutions. Prior paralegal educational courses will be evaluated for possible transfer credit. If credit can be applied, students will need to test out of any portion of program they are to receive previous credit for. All necessary documentation must be received prior to starting program. Previous training test must be completed before starting the program.

Cancellation and Refund Policy

1. Refund of tuition:

A. Failure to Provide the Agreed-Upon Program

If the institution substantially fails to provide the training program outlined in the enrollment agreement, 100% of all money paid by the student will be refunded.

B. If student cancels their enrollment by delivering written notice to PI on or before the start date of the training program, PI shall refund all money they have paid, minus 10 percent of the full tuition agreed upon in the Enrollment Agreement or $150.00, whichever is less.

C. If student withdraws by delivering written notice to PI or is expelled or terminated after the start date of the training program, but before 60% of such program has been presented, student will be charged a prorated tuition based on the percentage of the program presented prior to formal withdrawal or termination, plus 10% of the full tuition agreed upon in the Enrollment Agreement or $150.00, whichever is less.

D. If student withdraws by delivering written notice to PI or is expelled or terminated after 60% or more of the training program has been presented prior to formal withdrawal or termination, student will be charged the full tuition agreed upon in the Enrollment Agreement.

2. If a refund is owed pursuant to Paragraph 1, Paralegal Institute shall pay the refund to the person or entity who paid the tuition within 15 calendar days after the:

- a. Date of receipt by PI of written cancellation of the enrollment of a student.
- b. Date of termination by the institution of the enrollment of a student.
- c. Last day of an authorized leave of absence if a student fails to return after the period of authorized absence.
- d. Last day of attendance of a student, whichever is applicable.

3. Books, educational supplies or equipment for individual use are not included in the policy for refund stated in Paragraph 1 and will not be refunded.
4. For purposes of this section:
 - a. The period of attendance is measured from the first day of instruction set forth in the Enrollment Agreement through the last date of actual attendance, regardless of absences.
 - b. The period for the training program is set forth in the Enrollment Agreement.
 - c. Tuition is calculated using the tuition and fees set forth in the Enrollment Agreement and does not include books, educational supplies or equipment listed separately from tuition and fees.
5. As used in this section, “Substantially failed to furnish” includes canceling or changing a training program agreed upon in the enrollment agreement without:
 - a. Offering the student a fair opportunity to complete the same program or another program with a demonstrated possibility of placement equal to or greater than the program in which the student is enrolled, within approximately the same period, at no additional cost; or
 - b. Obtaining the students’ written agreement to the changes, including a statement confirming that the student is not being coerced or forced into accepting the changes, unless the cancellation or change is in response to updated requirements to enter the occupation.

Three Day Cancellation: PI shall allow an applicant to cancel an enrollment agreement if the applicant submits a written notice of cancellation to PI within 3 days. You can mail this notice to 710 S. 9th Street, Las Vegas, NV 89101, send an email to studentfinance@paralegalinst.com , or you can drop it off in person to the front Desk at 710 S. 9th Street, Las Vegas, NV 89101

Account for Student Indemnification

In an event of a schools discontinued operation or a violation by the institution per NRS 394.383 to NAC 394.560, an account for student indemnification may be used to indemnify a current student or enrollee who has suffered damage because of: discontinuance of operation or violation by such institution of any provision of NRS 394.383 to 394.560.

Attendance Policy

A minimum of 80% attendance must be maintained throughout the entirety of enrolled program. Any student who drops below 80% attendance will meet with an administrator to determine proper course of action going forward. Withdraw, make-up, or restart with leave of absence.

- The student may be allowed to make up missed class hours on an hour-for-hour basis during the approved time.
- The student may be allowed to restart the program during a later start date at no additional cost. This restart must occur within 6 months of the original start date, and the student will be required to sign a Leave of Absence request form.
- The student may opt to withdraw from the program and receive a refund in accordance with Paralegal Institutes refund policy.
- Students will be marked Tardy if they arrive more than 15 minutes late. Tardiness will count against the clock hour attendance in 30-minute increments rounding up. EX. If a student is 20 minutes late 30 minutes will be deducted, if a student is 39 minutes late 60 minutes will be deducted.
- If a student misses half of the class, it will count as an absence.

- Students leaving before their dismissal will be marked tardy or absence in the same ratio to the tardy and absence standards.
- All absences are recorded, regardless of reason.
- Three consecutive absences are an automatic termination.
- Students may request a leave of absence (LOA) in instances of family bereavement or medical conditions pertaining to the student or immediate family. The student will be allowed to join a later program at the same point of taking leave of absence or earlier within 6 months of the start of LOA.
 - Students will only be allowed a maximum of 1 leave of absence.
 - Submit a written request stating the reason and the amount of time needed for the leave of absence to the Campus Director.
 - Complete LOA forms

Standard of Academic Progress

All students must meet the following minimum standards of Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP):

- Maintain a minimum 80% cumulative attendance in their enrolled program.
- Maintain a minimum 70% or higher cumulative average grade throughout program.
- Evaluations are done at 29% of program completion and 67% of program completion.
- If satisfactory SAP is not being met at the evaluation period(s), the following will take place.
 - SAP warning, conversation with instructor and/or administrator
 - Depending on the level of unsatisfactory academic achievement the student may be given the option to take a leave of absence until the next start date to restart the program or continue the program on a probationary period until the next evaluation.
 - At the end of a probationary period, if a student is still not meeting the SAP requirements, the student will be terminated or dismissed.
 - To complete the program students are required to achieve 80% cumulative attendance and 70% cumulative average grade. Within the Maximum Time Frame (MTF), which is one and a half times the number of hours and weeks required for the specified program of study.

Grading Scale

Career/Placement Services

The Paralegal Institute offers employment aid to graduates, consisting of job lead referrals and job skills development. While aiding in your job search, we make no guarantee, expressed or implied, of future employment. Current law prohibits any school from guaranteeing job placement as an inducement to enroll students.

Grievance and Complaint Policy

PER NRS 394.443 Students enrolled in licensed, private postsecondary educational institutions have the right to register a legitimate complaint with the Commission on Postsecondary Education. Prior to filing a complaint, you must attempt to resolve the issue with school officials according to the policies of the school which you are attending- This complaint should be presented in writing to the PI Campus Director. If you are unable to reach a solution, you may contact the Commission (see below), and the Commission will attempt to resolve the issue. If a resolution cannot be reached, you will be required to complete a formal complaint form; Formal complaints are investigated by staff and a decision by the administrator of the Commission. If either party does not agree with that decision, an appeal to the full Commission may be requested.
