This beautiful prayer for children composed by St. John Paul II reflects the desire of every Catholic parent for their children to live a holy life faithful to God. It's ideal to pray in the morning or before your children leave home.

Prayer for Parents

My God, I offer you my children; You have given them to me, they always belong to You. I raise them for You and I ask You to keep them for Your glory. Lord, may selfishness, lies, and evil not tear from their souls the power of Your love. Give me the light, wisdom, and grace to educate them as You want.

Amen

We need your input

Today, the Gospel wants to help us look within ourselves, to find something hidden:

"The kingdom of heaven is like a treasure buried in a field" (Mt 13:44). When we speak of treasure, we refer to something of exceptional value, not to things or situations that, although loved, are still fleeting and cheap, like temporary pleasures: those things that so many people exhaust themselves searching for outside, but leave them feeling empty and unsatisfied once found and experienced.

The treasure that Jesus proposes is buried deep within our soul, at the very core of our being. It is the Kingdom of God. It consists in lovingly encountering, in a mysterious way, the Source of life, beauty, truth, and goodness, and remaining united to this same Source until, having fulfilled the time of our pilgrimage, and free from all useless trinkets, the Kingdom of Heaven that we have sought in our hearts and have cultivated in faith and love, opens like a flower and reveals the shine of the hidden treasure.

Some, like Saint Paul or the good thief himself, have suddenly come across the Kingdom of God in an unexpected way, because the Lord's ways are infinite. Ordinarily, however, for one to discover the treasure, it must be intentionally sought: "Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant searching for fine pearls" (Mt 13:45). Perhaps this treasure is only found by those who are not easily satisfied, by those who are not content with little, by the idealists, by the adventurers. In our temporal order, we say that the restless and nonconformists are ambitious people; but in the world of the spirit, they are the saints. They are willing to sell everything to buy the field. As Saint John of the Cross says: "To come to possess everything seek to possess nothing. To come to be everything seek to be nothing."

Please pray for our Home-bound and Sick

Father of goodness and love, Hear our prayers for the sick members of our community and for all who are in need.
