director's note

Pattye Archer
(Play Director)

When we first began shaping this production of Godspell, I was struck by its invitation to community. This show doesn't just retell stories—it asks us to live them, together, in joy, in questions, and in song. What begins as a group of individuals slowly becomes an ensemble bound by trust, generosity, and play.

In many ways, that is the heartbeat of Godspell: the reminder that even in uncertain times, we can find meaning and hope in connection. Through laughter, tears, and music, we are invited to see the most vulnerable in one another and ourselves, to embrace that, and to help love and lead each other through it. For me, that is what theatre is, and so it was natural for me to set our show in a theatre and to add theatre references throughout. I wonder how many “nods” to the theatre you will notice.

I am deeply grateful to this extraordinary company, whose creativity and spirit have brought these parables to life, and to you, our audience, for joining us in this shared celebration. May this performance remind us all that love, in action, is the greatest story we can tell. Come sing about love! Pattye

Emeri Cannada

Emeri is thrilled to be a part of Golden Triangle Theatre's production of Godspell! This is her first show after graduating from the Golden Triangle Theatre's Academy and she couldn't be more excited to work alongside her former teachers and new friends. She has starred in several of GTT's Academy shows, such as Elsa in Frozen, Gertrude McFuzz in Seussical, and Miss Hannigan in Annie; and has appeared in both annual "On Broadway" Galas. Despite only being 19 years of age, she has over 10 years of theatre experience. Emeri dedicates her performance to her father, who is deployed— "He's my biggest supporter. I can't wait to show him how far I've come in this production." Emeri hopes you enjoy Godspell as much as she has!

Ariana Rosado Estevez

Ariana is thrilled to be a part of this production and grateful for the opportunity to return to the stage. Although this marks her first theatrical experience since performing in a middle school musical, she's excited to step back into the world of performing arts. Ariana is a proud graduate of Mississippi State University, where she earned her bachelor's degree in science education. She currently works as an educator and finds joy in helping students discover their potential. Outside the classroom, Ariana enjoys riding her bicycle, playing pickleball with friends, and singing and serving with her church family at Fairview Baptist Church. This experience has been both a challenge and a joy, and she would like to thank the cast, crew, and everyone who helped bring this production to life. Most of all, she's thankful to God for the chance to share this journey with such a wonderful community.

Allison Jones

Allison is so excited to be onstage again! Previous GTT acting credits include Elsa in "The Sound of Music", Belle in "A Christmas Carol", Congregation in "Hunchback of Notre Dame", and Ellen in "Oklahoma!". Allison is a theatre instructor here at Golden Triangle Theatre Academy, having directed many youth productions including "The Lightning Thief", "Frozen, JR.", and "Seussical, JR.". She is currently co-directing the high school student production of "Elf, JR." with Garrett Torbert coming this December. Allison studied Theatre at MUW and is so excited to be back on the stage she loves and calls home. Theatre runs in her family, and she is so proud of her son, Jack, who is soon going to rock the stage as Aladdin in GTT's "Aladdin KIDS!" She dedicates this performance to her mother, Anna, who has always supported her hopes and dreams--"See how she shimmers? I mean, from the heart."

Zane Lynn (Jesus)

Zane is honored to perform with the Golden Triangle Theatre and grateful for the opportunity to return to Godspell—the first musical he ever performed in, making this role especially meaningful. A tenor and dedicated performer, Zane serves as a voice instructor at Mississippi University for Women in Columbus, MS, where he shares his love of music with the next generation of singers. Stage credits include Fernando in Mozart's Così fan tutte (Portland Opera Workshop), Herr Vogelsang in Der Schauspieldirektor, Mayor Upfold in Britten's Albert Herring, and Marcellus in Nancy Van de Vate's Hamlet with the Moravian Philharmonic. While living on the Mississippi Gulf Coast, he also enjoyed serving as music director for The Drowsy Chaperone and Bright Star. Zane holds a B.M. in Music Education from MUW and an M.M. in Vocal Performance from the University of Mississippi, and he is passionate about sharing the joy of music both on stage and in the classroom.

Matthew Sharkey

Matthew is excited to perform with GTT, having been involved in musical theatre most of his life he's excited to return to the stage for Godspell. Previous roles include: Lumiere in Beauty and the Beast, Cogsworth in Beauty and the Beast, Mr. Benjamin Burton Daniel Ovington in How to Succeed in Business Without Really Trying, and The Wizard of Oz in The Wizard of Oz, amongst other roles. Matthew holds a B.S in Foreign Area Studies - Political Science from the United States Air Force Academy. He is passionate about performing; theatre is a time-honored tradition and profession which serves as an opportunity for inspiration and expression.

Garrett Torbert (Judas)

Garrett serves as Executive Director of Golden Triangle Theatre, where he is dedicated to fostering community through the arts. He is excited to appear as Judas in Godspell. Favorite acting credits include Quasimodo (The Hunchback of Notre Dame) and Tony (West Side Story). As a music director, Garrett has led productions such as Oklahoma! and The Sound of Music. His directing work includes Amahl and the Night Visitors, The Pirates of Penzance, and co-directing Elf JR. When not working in the theatre, Garrett can often be found tending to his two diva corgis, Prima and Donna. He is grateful to the Golden Triangle community for their support and encouragement in bringing these productions and his vision for the theatre to life.

Lauren Trimm

Lauren is ecstatic to return to Golden Triangle Theatre and to be back onstage at her alma mater. Her past GTT credits include Mrs. Fezziwig/Laundress in "A Christmas Carol", Kate in "Oklahoma", and Baroness Elberfeld/Nun in "The Sound of Music." She graduated from The W in 2018 with her bachelor's in business communications. When she is offstage, she works as a material planner for Kent Worldwide, Sqwincher division, and serves at Vibrant Church. Lauren would like to thank her family and friends for supporting her dreams, and Pattye and Garrett for the opportunity to perform with this incredible cast!

Christie Tyndall

Christie is honored to be part of Godspell and thrilled to return to the stage. Her previous performances with Golden Triangle Theatre include The Pirates of Penzance, Oklahoma!, and A Christmas Carol. In addition to her love for theatre, Christie plays bass guitar in the East End Baptist Church Praise Band, where she enjoys sharing music as a form of worship and connection. Christie is passionate about storytelling through both song and stage and is grateful for every opportunity to grow and collaborate with such talented casts and creative teams. She sends heartfelt thanks to her family for their unwavering encouragement and support. Enjoy the show!

Vatreecia Young

Vatreecia is an educator, gospel singer, songwriter, and motivational speaker who uses music as a powerful tool to inspire and empower. A proud native of Macon, Mississippi, she is a graduate of Alcorn State University, where she earned her bachelor's degree, and the University of West Alabama, where she received her master's degree. With over four years in education, she helped to reestablish the Starkville High School Gospel Choir, guiding young voices to discover their gifts and share their stories through song. As an active member of the world-renowned Mississippi Mass Choir, Vatreecia has performed on stages across the nation, bringing heartfelt, faith-filled music to audiences everywhere. Her background as a Blind Instructor and mental health therapist reflects her passion for encouraging others to live with confidence, purpose, and hope. A devoted wife and mother of three, she continues to use her voice and her heart to make a lasting impact through both music and message.
