We would like to welcome all new incoming members of 2025 joining our church family at Pershing Park Baptist Church. God adds to the church such as should be saved, and we look forward to your presence and participation in building up the Kingdom of God and sharing His love.

Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord; and the people whom He hath chosen has chosen for His own inheritance. Psalm 33:12

The 4th of July is the day that we celebrate the sacred concepts of freedom, life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. Many people fought bravely and died for those concepts. In doing so, we reflect on the deeper faith that we have in Jesus' liberating power. Therefore, as we celebrate, let us remember that true freedom comes from Jesus Christ.

1. Give thanks to God for the freedoms we enjoy in this nation and for the sacrifices made to secure them.
2. Reflect on the true freedom we have in Jesus Christ.
3. Remember to use our freedom to serve God and others.
4. Be a force for good in our community and the world.
5. Pray for God's continued grace upon our nation.
6. Focus on gratitude for freedom, both earthly and spiritual, and encourage reflection on the blessings of liberty and the sacrifices made to secure them.

Happy 4th of July! Let us use our freedom to make a positive impact on the world around us by reflecting Christ in all that we do.

Pastor Dale A. Moye, Sr.

HAVE A HAPPY AND SAFE
4TH OF JULY

IT'S WHAT INSIDE THAT COUNTS

Recently I was at home looking at some old pictures. Some of them were of myself when I was seventeen when I had an afro (LOL). I was thinking, wow now I couldn't even grow that much hair without buying it. My Granddaughter Anaiah constantly tells me, "Papa you are going bald", and I really love her for pointing that out to me (yeah sure).

When I think about it, most of us have changed on the outside as we have grown a little older, and even if you are still young and have it "going on", it's not what is on the outside that counts with God.

God sent Samuel to anoint a king for Israel in 1st Samuel chapter 16 of our Bible. Jesse had seven sons. Their outward appearance had Samuel thinking this one must be the one, but God told him that "The Lord does not see as man sees; for man looks at the outward appearance, but the Lord looks at the heart."

It made me think in those pictures, though I looked good on the outside at that time, my inside was ugly. My heart was not the heart that God wanted me to have. Don't get me wrong I am not saying that you cannot look good on the outside and have a heart for God. I am just saying that no matter how we look on the outside, God knows our hearts and what we are on the inside.

If we get our inside right (heart and soul) that will always make our outside look so much better. Like the Palmist in Psalms 139:23-24 "Search me, God, and know my heart; test me and know my anxious thoughts. See if there is any offensive way in me, and lead me in the way everlasting"

Let's all ask God to search and clean our inside so we can of better service to Him on the outside (serving Him and our fellow man).

Have a happy and safe 4th of July as we celebrate 250 years as the USA!

Blessings,

AP Jonathan

TIME AND DATE TBD

PPBC's Marriage Matters Ministry

Came across this IG post from @thejourneyforhimandher on May 29th and thought we'd share it because sometimes we need to be reminded to take a pause from our daily activities and focus on our life partner:

1. Date each other (for real!). No, not your "twice a year, when grandma babysits" type of date. Make time to connect without distractions. Whether it's coffee in the car, a walk after the kids go down, or an at-home movie night. Make it consistent. Intimacy grows where intentionality lives.
2. Get creative. You don't have to spend big to spark joy. Write a love note. Plan a surprise lunch. Recreate your first date. Romance thrives in newness. The goal is to keep discovering each other, again and again.
3. Speak your partner's love language. Love them how they receive love, not just how you give it. If their language is words of affirmation, speak up. If it's acts of service, show up. This one small shift can unlock big connection.
4. Touch, touch, touch. Holding hands. Hugs in the kitchen. A kiss just because. Physical touch builds emotional intimacy. Don't underestimate the power of closeness that doesn't always lead to the bedroom, but always leads to connection.
5. Prioritize your marriage. Your marriage can't survive on leftovers. Don't wait until everything else is done to pour into each other. Choose each other, every single day. Your connection is the foundation of your home.

Upcoming PPBC MMM Events: MMM's on break for the summer; our annual Kick-Off event is scheduled for Friday, September 19th!

Theme: “Rooted, Refreshed, and Ready”

Greetings PPBC Family,

As we enter the month of July, many of us are seeking rest, rhythm, and restoration. Summer offers a sacred pause . . . an opportunity to reflect, reconnect, and realign with what truly matters.

This month, we celebrate Independence Day, a time to honor the freedoms we enjoy as citizens. But as daughters of the Most High, we are reminded of a deeper liberty, the freedom we have in Christ. Galatians 5:1 declares:

“It is for freedom that Christ has set us free. Stand firm, then, and do not let yourselves be burdened again by a yoke of slavery.”

Let this be a season where we step away from what weighs us down and draw closer to the One who lifts us up.

To our women and girls, I challenge you this month to:

- Take time to rest without guilt. Rest is not laziness, it is obedience.
- Reconnect with your purpose. God doesn't just speak in the hustle; He whispers in the stillness.
- Refresh your spirit. Whether through prayer, nature, or quiet journaling, let this be your revival season.
- Stay rooted in the Word. Even when routines shift, let your faith remain steady.

Whether you're traveling, planning family barbecues, or simply soaking up some summer sun, carry this truth with you: You don't need to chase purpose, it's already planted in you.

Let's stay rooted. Let's get refreshed. And when the time comes, we'll be ready to rise again . . . stronger, wiser, and more grounded in grace.

Blessings,

Min. Natasha Sunday Clarke

Women's Ministry Director

June marks the end of our Annie Armstrong Easter Offering. Thanks to your generous contributions we were able to raise $2,257! Beginning this month, we are starting our Mary Hill Davis Offering for Texas Missions. Thank you to everyone for supporting the Hope Pregnancy Baby Bottle Boomerang!

WMU of Texas President, 1906-1931

Mary Hill Davis was born in Greenville, Georgia, and came to Texas as a small child in 1870 when her family moved from Tennessee to Dallas. At age 20, she married F.S. Davis, a physician. They had one son, Raymond, also a physician and surgeon.

Mary's heart for missions and people was evident in everything she did. She believed Texas was a vast mission field, and that immigrants needed to know Jesus just as much as citizens. Not only did she stir women to give and pray for missions (giving increased by $1.2 million dollars during her presidency), but she also encouraged leaders to take care of orphans, schools in Texas, as well as China, and retired pastors living in poverty.

Mary Hill Davis passed away on November 24, 1934, and during a memorial service held at the WMU Convention of Houston in 1935, the State Missions Offering was re-named the Mary Hill Davis Offering®.

I often encourage our youth and their parents to open a Junior Executive Savings account with HOTFCU. This account is a fantastic way to learn about saving and managing money while earning a little extra for good grades in school.

Speaking of good grades, parents, grandparents, guardians, and other family members can deposit money into their student Junior Executive accounts for academic achievements. I like to contribute a portion of money for grades, as well as for birthdays and Christmas. Then, when they graduate, I plan to give them a debit card to this account as a graduation gift. Alternatively, you can choose to give them a debit card now.

This program is a tool to teach them about money management, ask our very own Patience McCown.

DISCIPLES OF SILENT PRAISE

Praise Dance and Mime Ministry

Let us praise His name with the dance! (Psalm 149:3)

Dancing is how we express with our bodies what our hearts feels towards the Lord. We have to be expressive with both our bodies and faces, so that everyone can see the joy we feel within our hearts. We may wave our arms above our heads, clap wildly, sway our bodies, and move our heads to the music, but we won't let anyone tell us that our style of praise is wrong. As long as it is praise, there is no right or wrong way. We don't only minister to our brothers and sisters in Christ, but we minister to ourselves as well. We are continuously seeking God to show Himself in us that we may be pleasing in His sight and do what He has called us to do; to minister to His people through dance.
