

"Haiti Scholars is there in good times and bad. After armed gangs invaded our community in November 2024, all hope seemed lost. Haiti Scholars never wavered in their support, finding a way to continue with food, medical and educational assistance. Because of their effort more than 350 children, teachers and staff can still look forward to a brighter tomorrow. Haiti Scholars remains a beacon of hope in a desperate time."

PASTOR CHRISTIEN VALCOURT,
HAITI SCHOLARS DIRECTOR IN HAITI

RESILIENT TEAM MEMBERS GIVE THEIR ALL

"I donate to Haiti Scholars because I have three grandchildren who went on mission trips to Haiti. I saw a great need to help. I felt called to give what I could. Every time we touch a child's life, we leave an imprint that carries them tenfold into their future."

RUTH DEPRIN, DONOR, 101 YEARS OLD

"It makes me smile when I see photos of children learning, eating and playing. Hearing a child laugh is a treasured gift. It gives me hope that there will be a better future for them. These children face tragedies and severe challenges every day. School gives them a safe and loving environment that they would not experience otherwise."
