

Community Assembly
of the British Isles

Our declaration to serve humanity for the highest good of all

"I am a free living being of flesh and blood, heart and soul. I stand under Natural Law, shared by all, as the basis for rationality and ethical values where to do no harm is the only rule. I make a personal commitment, divinely inspired, where, all that is required, is that I cause no loss to another, nor commit any fraud and keep the peace as I journey through each beautiful day, unhindered and free."

This declaration is read and agreed in good faith by all Members prior to joining their local Community Assembly and the Community Assembly of the British Isles. As soon as you are listed, you will receive an email to welcome you as a Member.
