Leader: God is generous beyond all our accounting, scattering grace into the world without reserve or condition.

People: We come this morning ready to receive more than we expect.

Leader: Christ speaks to us still in words that ask to be heard again, and heard new.

People: Open our ears, that we might listen as if for the first time.

Leader: Let us worship the God whose word takes root and grows in ways beyond our understanding.

People: We worship the God of abundant harvest and unending grace. Let us worship God together.
