ROME AREA FCA

December 2025

Student Highlight:
Sara Jo Pierce

This month we celebrate Sara Jo Pierce, a bright and determined 11th grader at Darlington School in Rome, Georgia. Sara Jo pours her heart into everything she does—whether she’s competing on the basketball court or performing on stage. She lives with her loving parents and is surrounded by a supportive family of grandparents, cousins, and siblings who encourage her in every part of her journey.

Sara Jo’s walk with the Lord grew deeper at the beginning of last year when she made a powerful personal commitment: to read the entire Bible in one year. What began as a simple goal quickly became something life-changing. Each day she spent time in scripture and conversation with God, and through that consistency, her faith transformed from something she knew about to something she lived. Sara Jo describes that season as the time when “the God I had always known really became my God.” Now, with a renewed sense of purpose and a firm foundation in His Word, she’s using what she’s learned to encourage others to seek a personal relationship with Christ and to live boldly for Him. One verse that continues to ground Sara Jo is Matthew 6:34. This reminder helps her trust God with every moment—choosing peace over anxiety and faith over fear. Sara Jo’s story reminds us that lasting transformation often begins in quiet moments of obedience and that God honors those who seek Him wholeheartedly.

November was a month centered on gratitude and reflection. Across our campuses and teams, we saw students, coaches, and families take intentional moments to give thanks—recognizing God’s faithfulness in both the big victories and the quiet, everyday blessings. Thanksgiving gatherings, team meals, and community moments created space for encouragement, connection, and service. It was a beautiful reminder that a thankful heart not only honors God but strengthens the relationships that make our ministry so meaningful.

As we move into December, we’re reminded of the true meaning of Christmas—Christ at the center of it all. Amid the celebrations, traditions, and end-of-year busyness, we’re encouraging our students and families to pause, reflect, and remember the incredible gift of Jesus’ birth. This season brings hope, joy, and a renewed sense of purpose as we look ahead to a new year. December is a time to celebrate God’s love made tangible and to step forward with anticipation for all He will continue to do in our schools, teams, and community in the year to come.
