

10 ways your Missionary can help you WHILE THEY ARE HOME

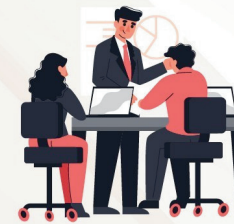

Plant churches in an under-churched area of your city.

Teach/Preach in your church.

Train people in effective gospel methodologies.

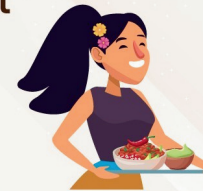

Help you develop a strategy for reaching the nations where you are.

Speak to a children's group about missions.

Demonstrate the food and culture of their host country.

Teach basic greetings or a bible verse in a foreign language.

Serve as resident missionaries on your VBS team.

Counsel people interested in being missionaries.

Teach Missiology or Language Acquisition at a local university.

10 ways to help your Missionary WHEN THEY ARE AT HOME

Help them get up to date (clothes, electronics)

Invite them to hang out

Take their kids for a night so they can go on a date

Buy them a season pass to Six Flags.

Take time out of your busy schedule and listen to their stories.

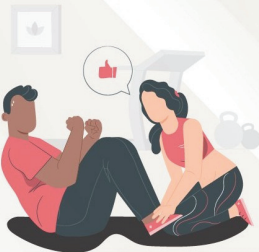

Teach them a new skill.

Take them to a familiar restaurant.

Invite them into your routine (exercise, coffee, etc)

Give them a new bible to replace their old one.

Help them with their housing and car situation for the short time they are in their home country.

10 ways your Missionary can help you WHILE THEY ARE OVERSEAS

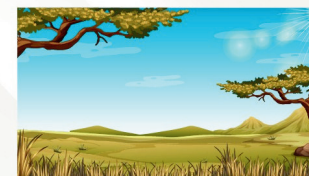

Do a Zoom interview with your class, congregation, or home group.

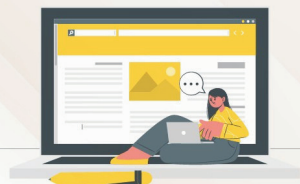

Send interesting things from their country of residence to use in sermon illustrations or missions events.

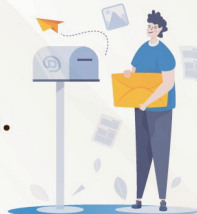

Disciple young people in their place of service for a summer.

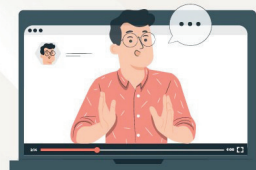

Write guest blog posts or articles.

Send regular updates from overseas to help broaden your churches horizon.

Teach (via zoom or podcasts).

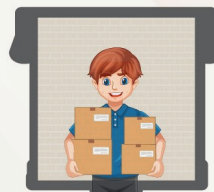

Give counsel on any church planting endeavors the church is doing, especially in the international community.

Pray for you and your needs.

Be a source (sharing exotic coffees, chocolates, teas and textiles).

Share the newest and most effective evangelism and discipleship methods.

10 ways to help your Missionary WHEN THEY ARE OVERSEAS

Start a vacation fund
for them.

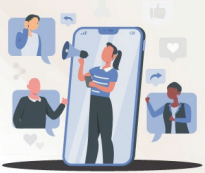

Advocate for them
while they are away.

Surprise them
with a phone call (at the proper time of day).

Repost their important announcements to your social media.

Send them a Care package.

Recruit and screen new team members for them.

Online gift certificates for their birthday.

Put on a fund raiser
to help them with a ministry project.

PRAY for them!
And let them know when you do!

Get a plane ticket and visit them in their time of need.

