TANDRIDGE NEIGHBOURHOOD WATCH NEWSLETTER

Bulletin 11 May 21st – June 3rd 2026

Dear Residents

Do you know about the different ways you can report concerns about knife crime?

Speaking up can feel difficult, but sharing information should help protect someone and even save a life.

If you are worried that someone may be carrying a knife, or involved in crime, there are several ways you can report your concerns:

- Directly to us
- If there's an immediate danger or emergency, always call 999, for non-emergencies call 101
- Webchat on our website <https://orfo.uk/aQt0R>

CrimeStoppers

You can report anonymously by calling 0800 555 111 or by their website <https://orfo.uk/allik>. They will never ask for your name or personal details

Fearless

They are part of CrimeStoppers and is designed specifically for young people to report crime or concerns 100% anonymously, either by their website <https://orfo.uk/ztyv5> or by phone 0800 555 111.

Whether you report directly to us, use an anonymous service, or encourage someone else to reach out to us, taking action matters.

Inspector Rob Staplehurst
Tandridge Borough Commander

PLEASE NOTE THIS NEWSLETTER IS BEING SENT TWICE AS ORIGINAL DID NOT REACH ALL RECIPIENTS
