

Dear Family:

Hello, my name is Andrea, but you can call me Andy. All my life I have lived in Mexico. I really love spending time with my family, being with friends and trying new things. I live with my parents and I don't have any siblings; but I have a dog called Oreo who is very cute.

I consider myself as someone funny, nice, charismatic, friendly, talkative, relaxing but very hardworking. My friends usually tell me I'm a good listener and an awesome supporter, one of my best friends always tells me I have good advice and a nice sense of humor. I'm an extroverted person but I'm shy when it comes to speaking in public.

On weekends I enjoy going to eat with my family, we usually go to eat sushi or pasta, which is one of my favorite foods. I actually consider myself a picky eater but I am always willing to try new food. My favorite breakfast is waffles with nutella.

I really like to travel, discovering new places and learning about them, like their cultures, traditions etc.

Actually I have many hobbies like painting or drawing because for me they are activities that relax me a lot and I enjoy doing them. Also I really like to play tennis, and I enjoy going to the baseball stadium with my family because it's really fun; I absolutely love dancing and music and I have many favorite artists. In addition I like fashion and makeup, especially going shopping and of course going to the Cinema. I really enjoy watching movies while eating snacks. I enjoy all kinds of movies, except for thriller movies.

Hanging out with my friends is one of my favorite activities, eating with them or walking in the mall, going on the mechanical games and swimming, playing board games and videogames are my favorite activities to do with friends. But cooking is something I really dislike.

I'm not so good at Math but I have good grades in school. I consider myself a good student, and my favorite subject is English class. I really enjoy it because the teachers have always been nice and make classes super funny.

For me a spectacular day would start with one of my favorite breakfasts and in the breakfast talk about everything, then explore the city and meet everything and take lots of photos. Then I would love going to eat at a restaurant that serves pasta and finally go shopping while enjoying a Vanilla ice cream.

For me going on exchange is something I've always loved since I was a little girl. I feel it's a new experience that will also help me with my knowledge and my personality and also meeting new people from other countries. I think that is really cool and also I want the experience of what it is like living in another country with a new family and being more independent.

Honestly, I'm really excited to experience this adventure, to get to know the places in Denmark, and to explore the beautiful places that everyone talks about in Denmark, as well as the lifestyle.

And one of the benefits is that I'm a very open person, so you could talk to me about anything. I would also help with whatever you need, and I can teach you a bit about Mexico, its culture, its festivities, like Day of the Dead or Christmas and since Mexico is such a beautiful place with a lot of history and delicious food, I'd love to share that with you, so I can honestly say that I adapt easily and make good company.

Mange tak for at åbne dørene til dit hjem for mig og gøre min drøm til virkelighed. Jeg håber virkelig, at dette år bliver fantastisk og en god oplevelse for alle.

Andrea
