

Dear Future Host Family,

My name is Daniel, and I am very excited yet nervous to become apart of your family during my time in Denmark. But first I'd like to introduce myself before we get the chance to meet.

I will be 18 during my stay in Denmark and am from the Central Coast in Australia, I have been to 3 different continents and cannot wait to visit Denmark. I currently live with my family, who are very important to me. My family includes:

My Mother: , One of the hardest working person's I know, very loving and caring and open to new experiences and living life to the fullest.

My Father: , The only person who may rival my Mothers hardworking ability, very funny yet serious a determined and committed person who loves his family.

My Older Sister: One of the closest people to me in my life, very similar to me, smart and funny always there to cheer me up, very passionate and committed to the things she cares for.

My Little Sister: , A very sweet and considerate person to be around, starting Highschool next year, is capable and filled with potential.

My Grandma: , one of the loveliest and funniest people I know, always makes sure I am comfortable and well fed.

My pets: My dog Tessa, who recently passed away after being in our family for over 8 years you will be missed, My cat Marceline, very introverted at first but loves a good snuggle and treat.

My family has taught me important values such as respect, kindness, responsibility, honesty, and caring for others. We enjoy spending time together by going out on weekends, camping during the School break, sharing meals and celebrating holidays together.

One of the biggest reasons I want to travel abroad is because I want to grow as a person, experience a new culture, improve my independence, and meet new people from different backgrounds. Denmark has piqued my interest me because of its lifestyle, friendly people, beautiful nature, and culture. I believe living with a host family will help me learn much more than I ever could from traveling as a tourist.

In the future, my goals are to attend a University and attain a degree relating to Business/Chemistry, travelling abroad in my future is something that I plan to achieve with Denmark aiding as a stepping stone to my travelling journey. I plan on working on myself physically through the gym and staying with sports like basketball and football, working on myself mentally through being willing to learn and experience new culture, ideas and concepts, Career wise my aspirations are large yet unsure, yet I see following in my parents hardworking footsteps is the correct path for me.

I have many interests and hobbies that are a big part of my daily life. I enjoy going to the gym because staying healthy and active is important to me. I also like cooking and trying new foods, and I would love to learn Danish recipes and maybe even cook common meals from Australia for you too.

Another thing I enjoy is reading and learning new things. I like listening to music throughout the day, especially when I am relaxing, studying, or working out. I also enjoy studying and improving myself academically and personally. Basketball is another big interest of mine because I enjoy teamwork, competition, and staying active.

When it comes to my personality, I would describe myself as funny, determined, cheerful, and easygoing. I enjoy helping others and being part of a family environment. I am also adaptable, independent and open-minded, which means I can adjust well to new situations and routines.

I think a host family would enjoy hosting me because I am considerate, respectful and positive. I respect house rules, keep my space clean and organised, and enjoy spending time with others while also understanding the importance of personal space. I love learning about people's traditions and lifestyles, and I would truly appreciate becoming part of your family and sharing experiences together.

I hope we can create wonderful memories together during my stay in Denmark. Thank you very much for taking the time to read my letter and consider welcoming me into your home. I am very excited to meet you and learn more about your family.

Kindest regards, Daniel
