Message From Your Executive Director: OCTOBER 2025

As the leaves start to change and the air turns crisper, it seems like life speeds up for everyone. Around here, fall is a season bustling with activity—festivals, family events, and traditions both old and new. For many, this time of year is a juggling act: kids settling into the school routine, calendars filling up with sports and lessons, and workplaces picking up the pace after summer. If you’re part of the “sandwich generation,” you know better than anyone what it means to be pulled in all directions at once, balancing the needs of growing children and supporting aging parents or grandparents, often while still managing careers and everything else life throws your way.

We know that when a loved one moves into our community, it’s usually because families need a helping hand. What might come as a surprise is how often you’ll hear from us, too, inviting you to join in for a meal, a festival, a musical performance, or just a moment to connect. We do this not to add to your already-full plate, but because we believe that staying connected, even in small ways, means everything to the people who live here—and to those who love them.

Still, we understand that you can’t be everywhere at once. Sometimes, you’re running from a school bake sale to a weekend tournament, and there just isn’t enough of you to go around. Please know: we see you, we appreciate you, and we’re grateful for every moment you share with us, even if it’s just a phone call or a note sent in.

This month, as we roll out fall celebrations and family-friendly events, we hope you’ll find a few minutes to join us when you can. Our doors are always open, and there’s nothing better than seeing families come together, whether for a pumpkin craft, a game night, or just to laugh and swap stories. Maybe, just maybe, our little gatherings will make it a bit easier to spend time with your loved ones, all in one place.

Thank you for trusting us with someone so important to you. We’re honored to be part of your extended family.

Sincerely,
Jessica Peters

Beyond Medicine: Jaime's Story of Service and Soul

This month, we're honored to shine the spotlight on Jaime—a man whose life reads like a grand adventure filled with compassion, resilience, and a heart as wide as the ocean he grew up beside.

Jaime was born in Lima, Peru, a bustling coastal city where the Pacific Ocean kisses the shore. From his childhood home, he could see the shimmering waves and often found himself descending long stairways just to feel the sand between his toes. Swimming wasn't just a pastime; it was a passion. Whether in the ocean or his father's pool, water was Jaime's playground. Even as a young boy, his kindness surfaced as he coached children to swim, teaching and encouraging them with gentle patience.

Life at home was a lively tapestry of family and love. Surrounded by parents, grandparents, an aunt, three sisters, cousins, and two household employees, Jaime's days were filled with laughter echoing through shared meals, spirited conversations, and the warmth that only a close-knit family can bring.

He attended Las Carmelitas Catholic School, where nuns and priests guided his early education, instilling values that would shape his path. Jaime then pursued medicine at La Universidad Peruana Cayetano Heredia (UPCH), earning his medical degree with a specialization in cardiology.

One of his first medical missions took him high into the Andes Mountains, serving remote communities often cut off from modern amenities. With no electricity or cars, Jaime traveled by horseback, bridging gaps not only in distance but in language—learning Quechua, the indigenous tongue, to connect with his patients. Instead of money, he was often gifted eggs, chickens, or fresh produce—a testament to the deep trust and gratitude he inspired. These humble exchanges deepened his respect for the rich diversity of people's lives and stories.

In 1989, Jaime's journey led him to Germany, where he advanced his studies at the University of Munich, worked in internal medicine, and earned his PhD. By 1995, he and his family made the United States their home, where Jaime continued his calling with unwavering dedication.

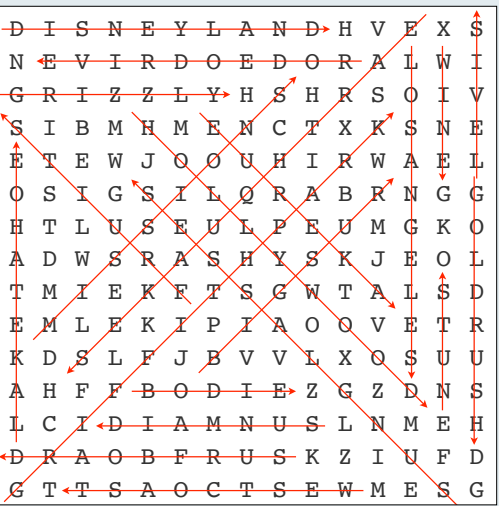

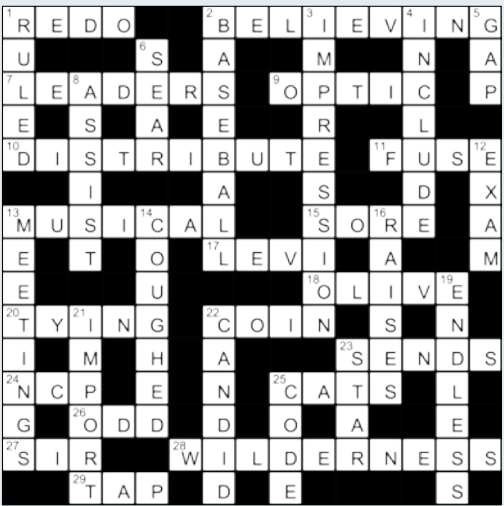

For over four decades, Jaime devoted himself to healing others, including 23 years running his own practice in Falls Church, Virginia. Patients didn't just see a physician; they found a friend who listened deeply. Jaime went beyond prescriptions—finding ways to make medications affordable, connecting patients to specialists, and sometimes waiving fees to ensure care was within reach. His practice was a sanctuary where medicine met humanity.

Beyond the clinic, Jaime shared his knowledge on radio call-in shows and television programs, bringing health education to the broader community with warmth and clarity.

But Jaime's brilliance extends far beyond medicine. Known for his honesty, kindness, and zest for life, he carries a strong sense of justice and a generous spirit. He treasures time with his two sons, sharing laughter, stories, and the simple joy of family. Conversations with friends about politics, religion, culture, art, and music spark his curiosity and passion. Jaime is also an avid traveler, museum enthusiast, and an incredible dancer—someone who embraces life's rhythms with open arms.

At Renaissance of Annandale, we are truly privileged to have Jaime among us. His story inspires, his presence uplifts, and his kindness touches every life he encounters. This Resident Spotlight celebrates not just a remarkable career, but a remarkable man whose warmth continues to brighten our community.

ACTIVITY Highlights

Hello! October has arrived, and that means our community is ready to embrace all things cozy, festive, and fun. From crisp autumn walks to pumpkin-themed activities, we'll be celebrating the season with laughter, creativity, and connection. Our residents are at the heart of everything we do, and I'm so excited to see them shine in this month's activities—whether that's joining in on a Fall Festival celebration, enjoying fall crafts, or simply having fun during this wonderful season!

October is also a time of togetherness, and I'm reminded daily how lucky we are to have such a strong community of residents, families, and staff. Thank you for being a part of the joy we create here—it truly makes all the difference.

Let's make this October amazing with plenty of smiles, a little bit of pumpkin spice, and lots of heart! October also marks my two-year anniversary working at Renaissance of Annandale and I am forever thankful to be part of such of an amazing community!

With gratitude and excitement,
Nataly
