PROFESSIONAL SECURITY OFFICER

FIRST RESPONSE TO ACTIVE SHOOTER SITUATIONS – PS25-0010

TRAINING PROGRAM

In today's business environment, situations may occur where criminals, stalkers or disgruntled ex-employees enter a facility and use firearms to attack, injure or kill clients, guests, or officers.

Security Officers who are the companies Immediate Responders must be trained in techniques to isolate and contain the situation including if possible, resolving the subject's violent behavior using the appropriate force option.

The S.O.R. Training center has developed this intensive sixteen-hour (16) program for first response professionals who may need these proven techniques during an armed confrontation with violent goal-oriented subjects. Information in this tactical program includes:

- * Rapid Response to Active Shooter/Hostage Situations
- * Workplace Violence & Surviving an Active Shooter Situation
- * Tactical Handgun Shooting Techniques
- * Officer Movements

SOR will furnish handouts and targets; however, each student must furnish their own weapon w/holster and belt, at least two reloading devices, 150 rounds of factory ammunition, eye and ear protection and handcuffs. Students must be physically capable of quickly and safely assuming the standing, kneeling and prone positions and safely recovering from the position without assistance. SIG 320s ARE NOT ALLOWED
