

BOOK DISCUSSION DICE GAME

Roll both dice and answer the corresponding question

	What was your favorite part of the book?	How did the book make you feel?	Who was your favorite character?	Did you like the ending?	What format did you read? Print, eBook, audio, etc.	What was the most memorable scene?
	Would you recommend this book to a friend?	How does the setting add to the story?	Who would you cast in a movie of this book?	Do you think the title fits the book?	What question would you ask the author?	Is there somewhere in the book you'd like to visit?
	What advice would you give to a character?	Would you read another book from this author?	Do you have a favorite quote?	What was your initial expectation?	Were you reminded of any other books while reading?	Did you change your opinion about any character?
	What themes did you take away from reading?	How do you feel about the pacing?	Which character did you relate to most?	Which character's journey was most interesting?	What did you think of the writing style?	What surprised you the most?
	Was there a moment that made you emotional?	What minor character deserves their own book?	What would you change about the book?	Were there any characters you didn't like?	What was the first book you loved as a child?	What is your favorite genre to read?
	Which book had the biggest impact on you?	Do you prefer stand alone novels or series?	Which book have you read more than once?	Which fictional world would you like to live in?	What book do you want to read next?	What is your favorite "classic" book?