General Price List

These prices are effective as of April 1, 2019
(Subject to change without notice)

The goods and services shown below are those we can provide to our customers. You may choose only the items you desire. (However, any funeral arrangements you select will include a charge for our basic services and overhead.) If legal or other requirements mean you must buy any items you did not specifically ask for, we will explain the reason in writing on the statement describing the funeral goods and services you selected.

“Prior to drafting any contract for goods or services, the responsible party or the decedent’s survivor who is handling the funeral arrangements is entitled to receive a copy of any preneed agreement in the possession of the funeral establishment that has been signed and paid for, in full or part, by or on behalf of the decedent.”

WALLIN'S FOWLER FUNERAL HOME

DISCLAIMER

The Federal Trade Commission Trade Regulation Rule for "Funeral Industry Practices" and the State of California require certain disclosures and prohibit misrepresentations. This form is a check list we ask those we serve to read and sign during the arrangements for the funeral of _____ who passed away on _____ 20____.

Our firm: 1. Did give/show prior to discussing prices, services or merchandise, a General Price List, effective April 1, 2019.

2. Did give/show prior to discussing prices and selection of caskets, alternative containers or urns, a Casket and Urn price list, effective December 1, 2017, respectively.

3. Did not advise that embalming was required by law, and except in certain cases, that the law does not require embalming.

4. Did not advise that any law requires embalming for direct cremation, immediate burial, a funeral using a sealed casket, or if refrigeration is available and the closed casket funeral is held without viewing or visitation.

5. Did not advise that any law requires a casket for direct cremation, other than an alternative container is required for direct cremation or direct burial.

6. Did not advise that state law requires the purchase of an outer burial container or any of the funeral goods or services I/we selected except as set forth on the statement of funeral goods and services selected.

7. Made no claims as to the merchandise or other offerings of this firm that embalming would delay the decomposition of remains for a long term or written warranties, if any, extended by the manufacturers hereof. No other warranties and no warranties of merchandising fitness or a particular purpose were extended.

Date

“Preneed arrangement,” “preneed agreement” or “preneed” is written instruction regarding goods or services or both goods and services for final disposition of human remains when the goods or services are not provided until the time of death, and may be either unfunded or paid for in advance of need.

Funeral Establishment’s Responsibility - Business and Professions Code Sections 7745 requires a funeral establishment to present to the survivor of the decedent or the responsible party a copy of any preneed agreement in its possession which has been signed and paid for in full, or in part by, or on behalf of the deceased. Business and Professions Code Sections 7685.6 requires a copy of any preneed arrangements to be disclosed prior to drafting any contract for funeral goods or services. The funeral establishment may present the copy in person, by certified mail, or by facsimile transmission, as agreed upon by the person with the right to control disposition. A funeral establishment that knowingly fails to present a preneed agreement as required is liable for civil fine equal to three times the cost of the preneed agreement, or one thousand dollars ($1000), whichever is greater.
