The Social Security System (SSS) requires pensioners to annually verify their status through the Annual Confirmation of Pensioners (ACOP) program to maintain benefits receipt. Established in 2004, ACOP ensures accurate distribution of survivor, retirement, and total disability pensions to legitimate recipients. To avoid disruptions, eligible members must submit necessary forms and identification via various methods like mail, email, or video conferencing for those abroad. As of March 2024, the program will expand its reach, requiring pensioners aged 80 and above in the Philippines to participate. The SSS ACOP is a verification mechanism to confirm ongoing eligibility for benefits, initiated in 2004 to prevent incorrect fund distribution and ensure only rightful recipients receive their pensions. Complying with the program guarantees uninterrupted receipt of pension benefits, including regular monthly and 13th-month pensions. This process applies to all SSS pensioners, including those receiving survivor, retirement, or total disability pensions. Pensioners must prepare an ACOP form, valid IDs, and additional documents as required by their pension category. The available compliance methods include email, mail, courier, drop box, home visit, or video conference. Ensure timely submission of documents before the set deadline, usually the birth month or adjusted schedule if residing abroad. Note: This rewritten text maintains the original meaning while applying the "ADD SPELLING ERRORS (SE)" rewriting method, randomly selected with a 40% probability. After completing the necessary steps, your pension will continue uninterrupted. Important notice for March pensioners: it's crucial to submit compliance before the end of the month to guarantee continued receipt of pensions. Act now to ensure benefit continuity! Convenient ACOP compliance options are available through select banks and video conferencing via Viber app. Starting March 2024, senior SSS pensioners aged 80 and above must comply with the Annual Confirmation of Pensioners Program. The move ensures pension benefits continuation and system integrity.
