

Ngā Rere Ora Ltd Announces Appointment of General Manager

"He pukenga Maunga, he rerenga wai"

Ngā Rere Ora Ltd is pleased to announce the appointment of Kiri Erb as General Manager of Ngā Rere.

Kiri brings extensive leadership and business experience, having successfully owned and operated a restaurant, catering business, and café. Her strong background in hospitality, business management, and customer service has earned her a reputation for excellence, innovation, and community-centred leadership.

Kiri's achievements have been widely recognised throughout the region. She was the recipient of the Aotea Māori Women in Business Award in 2025, and her renowned Tika Restaurant has received multiple Taranaki Top Shop Awards, reflecting her commitment to high-quality service and business excellence.

Kiri's approach to business has always extended beyond commercial success. Throughout her career, she has been committed to creating opportunities for uri and local community members through meaningful employment, skills development, and access to further education and training pathways.

Her passion for nurturing potential and investing in people has enabled many kaimahi to build rewarding careers, progress into leadership positions, and, in some cases, establish successful businesses of their own.

This commitment to empowering others has left a lasting impact on individuals, whānau, and the wider community.

Kiri's proven track record of building successful businesses while supporting the growth and development of others aligns strongly with the vision and values of Ngā Rere. Her leadership, business acumen, and commitment to people make her exceptionally well placed to lead the organisation into its next phase of growth and development.

We are excited to welcome Kiri to the team and look forward to the experience, energy, and strategic leadership she will bring to Ngā Rere.

Nau mai, haere mai, Kiri. We wish you every success in your new role.

Kiriwaitangi Rei-Russell
Chair of Ngā Rere
