

WADDLING WALTER LYRICS

Waddle, waddle, Walter away,
Hungry for adventure every day!
With his little sailor hat on tight,
He's ready to explore from morn 'til night!
Oh, waddle, waddle, don't be late-
The unknown's waiting just past the gate!

Reeds sway softly as he goes by,
Sunlight dancing in the sky,
"Today's the day!" he quacks out loud,
Feeling brave and feeling proud!
Tiny steps but a heart so wide,
Every splash is a joyful ride!

Waddle, waddle, Walter away,
Hungry for adventure every day!
With his little sailor hat on tight,
He's ready to explore from morn 'til night!
Oh, waddle, waddle, don't be late-
The unknown's waiting just past the gate!

So if you see ripples in the sun,
You'll know that Walter's on the run...
Waddling into something new-
And maybe he'll bring you along too!
