A LETTER FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

A lot of people ask questions about the Faith whenever I'm in different situations around town. And it seems that most people really do want to know about sin.

What about sin? People want to know whether something is a mortal sin or a venial sin.

St. John tells us there is a distinction between the two: "If anyone sees his brother sinning, if the sin is not deadly, he should pray to God and he will give him life. This is only for those whose sin is not deadly. There is such a thing as deadly sin, about which I do not say that you should pray. All wrongdoing is sin, but there is sin that is not deadly" (1John 5:16-17).

So, "deadly sin": mortal (keeps us from heaven); "not deadly sin": Venial sin.

People will ask what sins specifically are deadly. Well, there is no official list. There are three criteria for mortal sin:

1. Is it grave (serious)?
2. Do you know it's grave?
3. Do you freely choose to do it anyway?

If you truly don't know if something is grave, then it is not a mortal sin. Also, if you do not choose to do something freely (I missed Mass because I was sick, or because I physically couldn't get there), then it is not mortal.

Does that make sense? Surely, though, there are some sins that are always mortal: the deliberate taking of another's life that is not self-defense; missing Mass for no excuse; unfaithfulness in marriage; sexual relations outside of marriage, to start a list. We must go to confession and seek God's forgiveness for these sins.

Some ask if using foul language is mortally sinful. If using the Lord's Name in vain, and you are doing it purposely, then it is mortal. However, if using foul language and it is not meant to tear anyone down, it is likely venial.

I hope this is helpful to you when answering this question. It's not meant to point a finger or make anyone feel singled out. But for the sake of our own salvation, we all need to examine our life to see if we are living with God, or if we are perhaps committing mortal sin. If so, God is merciful and He welcomes us to the Confessional to seek His forgiveness and again live with Him in His Grace!

Mass Question: Raised Hands at the Our Father?

A few parishioners have asked a question about whether we are allowed to raise our hands in prayer during the Our Father. The Roman Missal (the big red book that I use at Mass and that is our instruction and prayer book for Mass), writes this instruction for the priest about the Our Father:

"He extends his hands and, together with the people, continues:" Our Father...

The "extends his hands," is the same thing that is written for the Eucharistic Prayer. The priest is offering that prayer on behalf of the people, and so he "extends his hands." The people are never directed to extend their hands with the priest, at any point in the Mass. So, the congregation should not raise their hands at the Our Father, as it mimics the priest's offering.

Some families hold hands during the Our Father. While there is no direction for the congregation except to pray the Our Father, holding hands probably would not be disallowed, since it does not mimic the actions of the priest (as the "extending of hands" does). But the only instruction is that the priest extends his hands and he, and the people, continue with the "Our Father". I hope this answers the question.

God bless you!
Fr. Sahd

Attention: Through federal legislation, starting this tax year (2026), there is a permanent, above-the-line charitable deduction for individuals who don't itemize, allowing them to deduct up to $1,000 (single) or $2,000 (joint) for cash contributions to public charities. This aims to encourage giving by allowing a deduction in addition to the standard deduction, though it excludes non-cash gifts and donations to donor-advised funds or private foundations. In short, if you donate to Seven Sorrows or any other charity, you can take an additional $1,000 (single) or $2,000 (joint) deduction on top of the standard deduction you already receive. This is great news for any taxpayer who donates!

RELIGIOUS VOCATIONS

"Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men." (Matthew 4:19)

During National Catholic Schools Week, we celebrate how education forms disciples in faith and character. Just as educators guide students in their growth, Jesus invites you to follow Him boldly. Could He be calling you to the priesthood or consecrated life to help form others in His ways?
