Finding Hope Behind Bars:
Becoming Disciples Who Make Disciples in Unexpected Places

We celebrate Advent and Christmas as seasons of light and joy, yet sometimes the brightest hope appears in the places we least expect. Over the years, I have found that ministering to those in prison is one of the most unexpected ways to live out the call of my pastoral letter MAKE to be disciples who make disciples.

My first encounter with prison ministry goes back to my volunteer year in Mexico in 1989. A female catechist invited me to join her in visiting a large prison. I remember the surprise of walking in with barely any formal checks and feeling a bit baffled and nervous about how I would get out. Yet what stayed with me most was her simple reminder: "They all have names. They are often forgotten, but if you become a priest, remember they exist. See the face of Christ in them!"

Years later, as a seminarian accompanying Cardinal Bernardin to the Cook County Jail for Christmas Mass, I saw that same spirit of discipleship. He had no family in Chicago, yet he found joy in bringing the Eucharist to those often forgotten. He showed me that prison ministry is not simply a duty but a moment of grace. It is a chance to be a disciple who brings Christ's hope to others.

Someone once told me that one of the humbling aspects of ministering in prisons is that the people you serve can never repay you. You do it simply because Christ calls us to recognize His presence in them. In that pure act of service, we quietly plant seeds of faith in hearts that society often overlooks.

Two weeks ago, I had the privilege of celebrating the Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and First Holy Communion for four inmates at the Joliet Detention Center. Their deep desire and reverence reminded me again of that woman's wisdom from years ago. They have names, they exist, and they are just as worthy of God's grace. After the Mass, each newly minted Catholic offered a testimonial, thanking those who brought Christ to them and sharing how lost they felt before being introduced to God and the Church. Their desire to cling to hope and live out their newfound faith inspired me deeply as we gathered in that makeshift prison chapel.

Let me highlight the ministry of the growing number of laypeople, deacons, and priests in our Diocese who are living out this call and bringing Christ's love to the incarcerated. And they do it with no fanfare. Truly, no one is writing them thank you notes or sending them gifts for their ministry. We as a Church and as a Diocese should be proud that so many are putting their faith into action through this ministry.

In Catholic social teaching, we uphold the dignity of every human being, even those who have sinned or been cast aside by society. As Jesus says in Matthew's Gospel: "Whatever you did for one of the least of these, you did for me." This is the heart of our mission. To see Christ in the prisoner, the hungry, the thirsty, the unborn, the immigrant, the person with disabilities, the stranger, and all in need. It is a true Christian hope. It is the conviction that Christ is with us always and that every person is worth seeing, knowing, and loving in His name.

In a few weeks, I will celebrate Christmas Mass at the DuPage County Correctional Facility. As I prepare for that Mass, please know that I will carry your intentions with me in prayer. Also, join me in prayer as together we carry that hope not only into the prisons but into every place where Christ's light is most needed. Our homes, our parishes, our workplaces, our neighborhoods, and all the hidden corners of our lives and our world.

May we never overlook the unexpected places where God's grace, hope, and light are waiting to break through and transform us all. For when we see the face of Christ in every person we meet, we fulfill the mission of being disciples who MAKE disciples.

Questions:

- + Have you ever tried to build a tower using blocks all by yourself?
- + When you work with another person, did you make a better tower?

Tie it to the Gospel

- In today's story, we hear that John the Baptist is in prison. And things are not looking good for him.
- The reason he is in prison is because he was telling people, including the king, that they were not living God's better way. And, that there was someone coming (Jesus), who would show them how to live God's better way.
- This is one way that John helped Jesus. By preparing the people to listen to Jesus.
- But now that he is in prison, John is asking Jesus if he, John, did the right thing.
- Jesus responds to John's question with what we would call good news.
- Jesus says, "The blind can see, the lame can walk, the sick are healed!" In other words, the world is better because John helped Jesus share God's healing and better way with the world.
- But, although the world is better in general, the world is NOT better for John. In fact, it's WORSE for John.
- John helped Jesus share a better understanding of God with the people but lost his own freedom because of it.

Our Mission:

- The Good News is always that God's love, grace, mercy, healing and abundance is available for us.
- When we pay attention to God and share what we have received from God, then we are helping the world see and know how God's way is the better way to live for ALL of us.

2025 CMAA CLOSING IMPACT REPORT

PROJECTED RESULTS FOR YEAR ENDING DECEMBER 31, 2025

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Year after year, I am humbled by the overwhelming success of our Catholic Ministries Annual Appeal and deeply grateful for your dedication. The credit for its success goes to you and your fellow parishioners across our Diocese for putting your faith into action with the level of generosity that's needed to keep our ministries vibrant, growing, and available to those who rely on them in a multitude of ways. As the 2025 campaign concludes, I am pleased to share with you the Closing Impact Report.

Your gifts were the open arms that embraced our brothers and sisters with disabilities, empowering them to live their faith fully and experience a life-changing sense of belonging. Your kindness opened doors to provide hope and shelter to those who are suffering from situational homelessness. Your generosity invited our Catholic youth and young adults to come together for faith-enrichment and fellowship that will craft the cornerstone of our Church's future. And your contribution helped our seminarians answer God's call with the education and formation that's required to become the spiritual leaders they were born to be!

I invite you to take a deeper look at the impact your gifts have made on an individual parish basis and on our Diocese by exploring the report. It's inspiring to see what YOU and your fellow parishioners have accomplished!

Thank you for opening your heart to God's goodness through the sacrifices you made in service to others. May you and your loved ones continue to receive God's blessings in abundance.

With best wishes, I remain—
Sincerely Yours in Christ,

+ Ronald A. Hicks

Most Reverend Ronald A. Hicks | Bishop of Joliet in Illinois

OPEN YOUR HEART TO GOD'S GOODNESS

Your support of the CMAA in 2025 helped make this appeal a tremendous success! Through your heartfelt generosity, we carry out our Church's mission—opening hearts to God's goodness across the Diocese of Joliet. See how your gifts directly impacted our ministries and community outreach programs, making a profound difference in countless lives!

100% Total $9,452,000

YOU'VE INVESTED IN OUR FUTURE PRIESTS

Just as our future priests have answered God's call, you have answered as well, by supporting these young men on their path to the priesthood. Your investment in their education and formation has made it possible for seminarians like Matthew Bernhard to focus fully on their theological studies and pastoral assignments in preparation for a life devoted to serving God and others.

YOU'VE ENRICHED OUR CATHOLIC SCHOOLS

As a ministry, the Catholic Schools Office provides the tools needed to craft a curriculum rich in academic excellence and wrapped deeply in faith. The Called by Name conference explores the Catholic vocations of priesthood, marriage, religious life, and single life through music, dynamic guest speakers, and Eucharistic adoration. Your generosity helps the Catholic Schools Office prepare our next generation of Catholics to go out into the world as loving disciples of Christ.

YOU'VE SPARKED THE FIRE WITHIN OUR YOUTH

Today's young Catholics are craving connection aligned with their faith to grow closer to Jesus. The Department of Catechesis and Evangelization facilitates that need through programs and events like the Shoubeville Joliet Youth Conference. A record 1,200 teens from around the Diocese choose to attend the conference because they want a more active experience to move their hearts and connect with God. Your gift helps to spark the fire within them!
