Mirrors of God by Joseph W. Goetz

Why should you join us?

Mirrors of God shows us that we are meant to reflect the Creator—not perfectly, but faithfully.

In six brief chapters, author Joseph W. Goetz helps us:

- Use the side doors to enter the building, not the front doors. Accessible entrance is on the East side of the building.
- Masses will be simulcast to the ACL, allowing for those with mobility concerns and young families to fully participate in our lower-level seating areas.
- Ushers and Eucharistic Ministers will be on hand in both seating areas to help you navigate to your seat, pass the basket during the offertory and distributing communion (bread only) during Mass.
- Seating will be cozy! Please help by minimizing open chairs and moving over when directed by the ushers.
- Confession will be heard on Saturday afternoon upstairs in the new space in the sacristy just off the altar. If you require an accessible option for confession, please reach out to pamela@st-irene.org.
- While we will not have a children's room, the lower level will be available for those with young children. We ask that noise be kept to a minimum if possible.

Questions:

- + What does the word, “blessed” mean to you?
- + How are you blessed?
- + How do you know that you are blessed?

Tie it to the Gospel

- In today’s passage, we hear Jesus say that certain people are blessed.
- Now, the word “blessed” can mean a couple of things.
- One thing it can mean is that God is really close to us.
- Jesus then lists some people who are blessed – or “close to God.”
- And I think one thing that all those people have in common is that they all want something that God wants, too.
- For instance, the peacemakers want peace, just like God does.
- The merciful want mercy, just like God does.
- And then there are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, just like God does.

Our Mission:

- God is with us all the time.
- But, in today’s scripture passage, Jesus is reminding us that when we are wanting the same things that God is wanting for us and the world, then that is a way that we better know and feel how God is with us.
- The more we know how God is with us, the better able we are to receive God’s help to make those things happen in the world that both God and we want to see happen.

Thank you for supporting our Parish!

Thank you for your generous support for last week's Collection for the Church in Latin America. As a parish, we collected $1,064.00 to share the faith with our brothers and sisters in Latin America and the Caribbean, so they in turn can share the Good News in their communities. If you missed the collection, it's not too late to give just visit www.usccb.org/latin-america/collection.

On the feast of St. Blaise, Catholics traditionally receive a blessing of the throat. This blessing is administered by a priest, deacon or a lay minister who follows the rites and prayers designated for a layperson. During the blessing, the minister takes two candles that were blessed on the feast of the Presentation and makes a cross in front of the throat, saying "Through the intercession of Saint Blaise, bishop and martyr, may God deliver you from every disease of the throat and from every other illness." A priest or deacon will then make the sign of the cross.

The 2026 Catholic Ministries Annual Appeal has begun!

This year's theme is Beyond all Expectations: Faith that Elevates! Through the CMAA, we ensure Christ's mission and ministries reach everyone. Our parish goal is $65,000. Please review your mailing from the Diocese of Joliet and prayerfully consider your gift.
