March for Kids March 14-15

You may know of Mercy Home for Boys and Girls as the producer of "Mass at Mercy Home;" a weekly Sunday service aired on WGN-TV. But Mercy Home also is a Chicago-based, Catholic-founded refuge for vulnerable children and young adults. Many youths come to Mercy Home having faced tremendous hardships including poverty, housing instability, violence, loss, and more. But with the full-time care, counseling, and education they receive at Mercy Home, young people can break the cycles of abuse, neglect, and poverty.

The St. Irene Knights of Columbus Council is participating in this year's annual Mercy Home fundraiser, March for Kids, in support of Mercy Home's mission.

Knights will be collecting donations after Masses downstairs in the "old" church during the St. Patrick's Day weekend. If you can, please be generous to this worthy charitable organization. Feel free to contact Joe at jdrk4715@aol.com if you need additional information.

 - Two other meatless meals should not equal a full meal
 - Eating between meals is not permitted
- ❖ To disregard the law of fasting is sinful.
- ❖ Follow a program of self-denial, serious prayer, and works of charity and mercy.
- ❖ Anyone sick, pregnant, nursing or whose health would be affected by fasting is not bound by these regulations.

Questions:

- + Have you ever put a flashlight in a bag?
- + Could you really see the light from the flashlight?
- + Is it a good idea to keep your flashlight in a bag?

Tie it to the Gospel

- In today's scripture story, Jesus is telling his disciples that they are the light of the world.
- In other words, Jesus is telling his disciples that they are to be flashlights that shine God's light, love, and healing.
- And, by shining God's light, the disciples would help the people around them see God's better way for them to live.
- This is why Jesus also tells his disciples to not hide God's light, to not keep what they know of God to themselves where it can't be seen, but to let that light shine!

Our Mission:

- The same thing that Jesus taught his disciples in today's scripture story is also true for us.
- We, too, can invite God into our lives and receive God's light, love, and healing.
- And while it's really good to experience God's light, love, and healing, we are reminded in today's passage that we are also made to then shine with God's light, love, and healing so that others can receive God's light, love and healing, too.
- When we do that, we are being God's light to the world, just like Jesus and the disciples were.
