Questions:

- + Have you ever seen a cat or dog chase its tail?
- + Did you think it was funny? Why?
- + Would it still be funny if they did it every minute of every hour of every day?

Tie it to the Gospel

- In today's Gospel, the Pharisees are watching Jesus very carefully to see how close Jesus will sit to the person who is having everyone over for the dinner.
- The idea was that the closer Jesus sat to the host, the more important Jesus thought of himself.
- If that doesn't make much sense, think of it like a race: The closer you sat to the host, the closer you thought you were to winning the race.
- But Jesus knew that he didn't need to win a race or sit in the best seat.
- Which is why Jesus then tells the Pharisees why they, like him, don't need to win the race or care about where everyone sits.
- Jesus basically tells them, "Why do you care about getting first place to prove that you are important? You are chasing what you already have. God already likes and loves and honors and respects you. God already thinks you are important!"

Our Mission:

- God is already offering us God's love, respect, honor and glory, which means we don't need to chase after it or try to get it from other people.
- We don't need to be like the dog or cat that chases its tail all the time.
- Instead, we can receive these gifts of love, respect, honor and glory from God and then share those gifts with the people around us who don't yet know that God loves, honors and respects them, too.
