St. Irene Catholic Parish

24TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Peter approached Jesus and asked him, "Lord, if my brother sins against me, how often must I forgive? As many as seven times?" Jesus answered, "I say to you, not seven times but seventy-seven times." - Mt 18:21-22

Should I Stay or Should I Go?

By Tracey Earl Welliver

Life is not always easy on us and it can be hard to figure out the next step to take in our journey. We can even become immobilized by indecisiveness and fear about making the wrong move or choosing the incorrect path. I think of the song, Should I Stay, or Should I Go, as a mantra for many times in my life. Should I stay in this house, this job, or this car? Should I go here or there? When those times of decision surface, I usually turn to my wife, my friends, or even my children. Talking it out can help, and their perspectives give me more data to consider.

When I lean on others to help me make a decision, it helps me become more confident in my choices.

Discerning the will of God is not easy either. Rarely do we understand God's calling clearly at first. God's calling is always more easily discerned within a community of faithful disciples. Our stewardship way of life can suffer greatly if we refuse to allow others to assist us in the process of discernment. What gifts or talents are needed for the task at hand? Where do I fit best into God's plan? Where is God leading me? No one should have to decide the answers to these questions alone. We need to always lean on the Body of Christ to help us see the path that God has laid before us. Without a little help along the journey, over time we might find ourselves stuck in the same place where we started.

Bishop Hicks' Column

September 2023
1,000 DAYS

RECENTLY, SOME FRIENDS AND I WERE DEBATING if "milleversary" is a real word. I'd never heard of it, but some insisted it is a legitimate word that means 1,000-day anniversary. Some cleverly invented alternatives like "kiloversary," or "k-day."

This summer I celebrated my "milleversary" here in the Diocese of Joliet. September 29 will mark three years since I was installed as your bishop. I still remember my installation Mass as if it were yesterday. It was in the midst of the pandemic. Even though my heart raced with joy and excitement as I walked down the aisle and looked around, I thought to myself, what strange days these are with the pews only 20 percent filled with masked people.

After the installation, I spent my first year in deliberate listening mode. I strived to get to know the diocese, the history of the parishes, the nature of the schools, the experiences of the priests and deacons, the presence of the religious men and women, the involvement of the laity, the breadth of ministries, the status of our finances and the source of our donations and resources. Like assembling pieces of a puzzle, I began to form a clearer picture of our diocese that included both the good and the bad.

I quickly realized the expanse of our diocese. With 125 parishes and missions contained in 4,218 square miles within seven counties, our footprint is enormous. Before arriving in Joliet—during my six years as Vicar General in the archdiocese of Chicago—I walked each day to my office in the pastoral center. As a result, I averaged only about 6,000 miles per year using my car. Comparatively, I now drive about 22,000 miles per year.

But I'm certainly not complaining. I am truly most happy when I get out from behind my desk and am out "in the vineyard" with you, the people of God, celebrating our faith and salvation in the Lord Jesus. Though each parish has a unique "personality," they all share the common trait of gracious hospitality.

I am deeply moved when I witness the pastoral leadership of our priests, deacons and staff members. I am touched by how much our parishioners love the Lord, the Blessed Mother, your communities of faith and your families.

Naturally, when I first arrived, I had to come to grips with some of the challenges facing our diocese, many of which were caused by the pandemic. These issues included budgetary concerns caused by decreasing attendance and contributions. With ever-shifting demographics, I was made aware of how some parishes and schools are experiencing great growth, while others are in substantial decline.

Two years ago, when I launched our Targeted Restructuring process, my first goal was to reorganize the diocesan offices while embracing a diocesan vision of Catechesis, Evangelization and Faith into Action. Since then, we also have turned our attention to consolidating or closing some specific parishes and schools, so that our diocese will continue to thrive vibrantly and meet the needs of all those we serve.

Through it all, I have emphasized the need to pass our beautiful faith and tradition on to the next generation—as we move from maintenance to mission. I want us to intentionally look for every opportunity to bring more people into the Catholic faith—especially young people—as we continue to encourage them to consider a vocation to the priesthood, religious life and the various ministries in the Church. While doing this at the local level, we also have embraced national movements such as the National Eucharistic Revival, as well as the international Synod on Synodality.

As I reflect on these past 1,000+ days and look forward to my fourth year as your bishop, I am anticipating our launch of the year-long commemoration of our diocese's 75th Anniversary. This celebration will give us the opportunity to remember our past, celebrate our present and look forward with hope.

Your presence, prayers and gifts make this a strong and healthy diocese. Thank YOU for making it so easy for me to say constantly, I feel happy, blessed and grateful here.

Catholic Kids Column Forgiveness

 ...how often should I forgive?
 "Not SEVEN times, but I tell you,
SEVENTY-SEVEN times."
 In today's gospel Jesus tells his followers that it is important for them to share with others the limitless gift of forgiveness that they themselves have received from God. When Peter asks Jesus how many times he should forgive someone who hurts him, he understands Jesus' answer. With his answer seventy-seven times, Jesus makes the point that forgiveness should have no limit. Jesus tells the story about a king and an unforgiving slave to teach that we are to forgive one another because God has forgiven us. Today's passage concludes with a stern warning to forgive as God forgives.

The Church teaches that when we forgive those who wrong us we are brought closer to Jesus. In the prayer that Jesus taught us we ask the Father to "forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us." When we truly pray this prayer and meditate on the words, God plants the gifts of compassion, gratitude and love within us. The path of forgiveness proves that love is stronger than sin.

In the sacrament of reconciliation we celebrate God's forgiving love. We confess our sins and say that we are sorry. We are reconciled with God and the believing community.

"Come to Me..."

One of the four pillars of the Eucharistic Revival calls for PERSONAL ENCOUNTERS

...monthly "Encounter Nights" that help parishioners encounter Jesus in the Eucharist personally.

Jesus desires a deep, personal relationship with each individual who visits our pews. But it is impossible to even begin that relationship unless they first meet him personally! This invitation is about creating space for Jesus to speak—either for the first time or simply in a new way.

In this Year of Parish Revival, all are invited and challenged to participate in our monthly Encounter Nights, featuring Eucharistic adoration and the Sacrament of Reconciliation.

Please check Flocknotes and our parish web site for details.

God's Love Unites Us!

Over the next few weeks, you will be hearing about the upcoming God's Love Unites Us program at St. Irene.

This effort is very important as we move forward with the mission and vision of St. Irene. We, as a parish family, have changed so many lives in our community!

In order to continue our mission and ministries, we encourage all parishioners to spend time in prayer and discussion with your family reflecting on the work we do. Our special Commitment Weekend will be celebrated on October 7 & 8.

If you have any questions regarding this God's Love Unites Us program, please feel free to contact the parish office.

Building Community - Supporting Families

Johnson Family Connection Meal September 21, 6:00pm

Several churches and organizations through Warrenville Person's in Ministry have created the Johnson Family Connection with the help of a $10,000 grant. The purpose of this grant is to build relationships with the families attending Johnson School. We plan to do this by hosting FREE monthly dinners at Johnson for the entire school. Our hope is that once we establish relationships, we can better learn and serve the needs of the families (85% of which are considered "at risk"). With that being said, our first dinner event is Thursday, September 21st and we will need help!! If you are interested in this ministry and would like to help out, please see the link below. We are looking for greeters, servers, set up and clean up people and bakers.
