What is Consulting?

Consulting through the lens of Let There Be Light is designed for nonprofits, small businesses, and teams who want to lead with clarity and purpose, without burning out. Consulting creates space to step back from the day-to-day, realign with your mission, and move forward with focused, strategic direction.

Whether you're navigating growth, restructuring, managing change, supporting a key project, or rebuilding team culture, consulting brings an outside perspective with practical expertise. It's not about doing more- it's about doing what matters most so your people, systems, and impact can truly thrive.
