

My notes from Sunday's message continued...

"No one can serve two masters... You cannot serve both God and money."

MATTHEW 6:24 NIV

Money doesn't just buy things. Money makes promises.

Money is a resource to steward, not a savior to worship.

Command those who are rich in this present world not to be arrogant nor to put their hope in wealth, which is so uncertain, but to put their hope in God.

1 TIMOTHY 6:17A NIV

WALKING with the SPIRIT

OCTOBER 18, 2026 ~ ERIC WAYMAN
In _____ We Trust

ACTS 19

Jesus isn't a power; He's a person.

You find out what you really trust when Jesus asks you for it.

This Study Guide is designed to help you apply Sunday's message. Join a Life Group and do this study together!

1. Think of something you saved up for or really wanted to buy. What made it so valuable or important to you?
2. This week's message was In _____ We Trust. Let's read Acts 19:17–20 and 23–27. Was there a part of the message that stood out to you or that God called your attention to?
3. The Ephesian believers willingly gave up things they once considered valuable because Jesus had become more valuable to them. Let's read Matthew 13:44–46. What do these parables teach us about the joy of surrendering something to follow Jesus?
4. Money promises us security, freedom, and peace about the future. Let's read Matthew 6:25–33. What does Jesus teach us about trusting God to provide for our needs?
5. Our message reminded us that we discover what we really trust when Jesus asks us to surrender something. What is one area of your life where you find it difficult to let go of control and fully trust God?
6. Let's read 1 Timothy 6:17–19 and Proverbs 30:7–9. Everything we have belongs to God, and we're called to steward it well. What is one small step you could take this week to demonstrate greater trust in God through your finances?
7. How can we pray for you this week? Is there an area where you need God's help to trust Him more?
