WALKING with the SPIRIT

OCTOBER 25, 2026 ~ ERIC WAYMAN
A Message to the Watchmen

ACTS 20:13-38

Discipleship takes time. It requires relationship.

"Son of man, I have made you a watchman for the people of Israel; so hear the word I speak and give them warning from Me. When I say to the wicked, 'You wicked person, you will surely die,' and you do not speak out to dissuade them from their ways, that wicked person will die for their sin, and I will hold you accountable for their blood. But if you do warn the wicked person to turn from their ways and they do not do so, they will die for their sin, though you yourself will be saved." EZEKIEL 33:7-9 NIV

A Watchman's job is to watch for danger and sound the alarm if they see any.

This Study Guide is designed to help you apply Sunday's message. Join a Life Group and do this study together!

1. Think of someone who cared enough about you to tell you something you needed to hear, even if it was difficult. How did that person make a difference in your life?
2. This week's message was A Message to the Watchmen. Let's read Acts 20:22-28. Was there a part of the message that stood out to you or that God called your attention to?
3. Paul encouraged the elders to watch over themselves before watching over others. Let's read 1 Timothy 4:16. Why is paying attention to our own walk with Jesus so important when we're trying to influence others?
4. The message reminded us that we all have a "section of the wall" — people God has placed in our lives. Let's read Colossians 4:5-6. What do these verses teach us about how God wants us to relate to people who don't yet know Jesus?
5. Who is one person God may be asking you to intentionally care for this week? What small step could you take to pray for, invest in, or share with that person about Jesus?
6. Let's read Acts 20:36-38. It's clear that Paul and these believers had developed deep, meaningful relationships. What do you think helped create those kinds of relationships, and how can we experience that same kind of connection with one another?
7. As we close, how can we pray for you personally this week?
