Stewardship and Discernment: An Invitation to Service

Jesus gave what might be called his “farewell address” to his closest followers at the Last Supper. In response to a discussion about who among them was the greatest, Jesus told them in Luke 22:25-30: “Earthly kings lord it over their people. Those who exercise authority over them are called benefactors. Yet it cannot be that way with you. Let the greatest among you be as the junior, the leader as the servant. ... I for my part assign to you the dominion my Father has assigned to me.” We can see how Jesus is sharing his authority with his apostles, an authority in which all the baptized share. Jesus places all of us in relationship with one another in the context of hospitality and service as members of his Body, the Church.

Perhaps you have a strong sense of particular gifts God has given you, or perhaps others have identified these gifts and mentioned them to you. Stewardship is a recognition that we have received these gifts from God for some benefit, and discernment leads us to understand how God wants us to use them.

Discernment has three aspects:

- 1) To listen with your heart and head to interior leanings, desires, and motivations
- 2) To reflect upon these and how God and the Spirit are active in them
- 3) To respond to these, decide how/when to act upon them, and take action

As you can see in this booklet, there are many ways you can embrace this third aspect of discernment here at Holy Family. The forms at the end of the booklet remind us that discernment might lead us to embrace or continue a ministry, or to leave a ministry. The booklet is also available on the Holy Family website via the QR code on the cover. You may place your completed forms in the collection basket at the weekend liturgy, leave them on the basket at the Time & Talent table, or drop them off in the office.

In Christ's Peace,
Fr. Bill Gerlach
Pastor

The Eucharist is the Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity of Jesus Christ; it is Christ Himself (CCC 1324). In the 3rd grade, children prepare for and receive the sacrament of First Eucharist. The reception of this sacrament is held in the spring. Students and parents preparing for their First Communion receive a deeper understanding of the Real Presence of Jesus in the Eucharist.

HOW TO PARTICIPATE: Parents register their child for the sacraments when they register for Faith Formation classes in the fall. Information regarding the preparation and reception of the sacrament is given to them at this time.

Matrimony

The mutual love and fidelity promised in the Sacrament of Matrimony gives witness to the faithful love of God for his people. This sacrament is the basis for Christian family life. Couples preparing for the Sacrament of Matrimony learn that unselfish love is the foundation for a happy marriage and a happy family.

HOW TO PARTICIPATE: Couples wanting to prepare for and receive the Sacrament of Matrimony need to contact the parish office to reserve their wedding date and to receive a packet of information needed for preparation. The priest will then contact you for a meeting and direction.

O.C.I.A./Inquiry

O.C.I.A. is an acronym for the Roman Catholic Order of Christian Initiation for Adults. This is the process the church uses to prepare anyone who has never been baptized for entry into the Roman Catholic Christian Faith. This catechetical process is designed to prepare and welcome baptized members of other Christian denominations who wish to become Catholic as well as Catholics who have been away from the Catholic faith and wish to return, or just want a refresher on our Catholic faith, including those who wish to receive any missed sacraments needed to be in full union with the Church.

HOW TO PARTICIPATE: There is always a need for parishioner participation in this process. Sponsors are needed to share their time and talent with the formation team and the candidates. Sign up using the QR code, go online at holyfamilygf.org or use the forms in this booklet to join OCIA as a candidate or to be an OCIA sponsor.

Volunteers

Where would we be without volunteers, who quickly respond when a need appears?

This is the way you have chosen to serve—What appreciation you deserve!

There are very many things to do and YOUR time can only be given by YOU!

So, without complaint and without demands, You offer the labor of your hands.

The world is a better place to live when people like you are so willing to give.

With this attitude of love and of care, you will find a welcome anywhere.

You may not always know when someone is especially blessed by a kindness you've done.

As you freely share your hours and days, may you also be blessed in many ways.

Fostering Stewardship as a Way of Life

THE CATHOLIC THEOLOGY OF STEWARDSHIP

“As members of the Church, Jesus calls us to be disciples. This has astonishing implications:

Mature disciples make a conscious decision to follow Jesus, no matter what the cost.

Christian disciples experience conversion—life-shaping changes of mind and heart—and commit their very selves to the Lord...

Jesus’ disciples and Christian Stewards recognize God as the origin of life, giver of freedom, and source of all things. We are grateful for the gifts we have received and eager to use them to show our love for God and for one another...

Jesus calls us, as his disciples, to a new way of life—the Christian way of life—of which Stewardship is part.

But Jesus does not call us as nameless people in a faceless crowd. He calls us individually, by name. Each one of us - clergy, religious, lay person, married, single adult, child—has a personal vocation. God intends each one of us to play a unique role in carrying out the divine plan...

This mission—proclaiming and teaching, serving and sanctifying—is our task. It is the personal responsibility of each one of us as stewards of the Church...

The challenge, then, is to understand our role—our vocation—and to respond generously to this call from God... Christ calls each of us to be stewards of our personal vocations, which we receive from God...

We must ask ourselves: Do we...wish to be disciples of Jesus Christ and Christian Stewards of our world and our Church?”

Stewardship Prayer

Lord God, you alone are the source of every good gift, of the vast array of our universe and the mystery of human life. We praise your tender, faithful love. Everything we are and have is your gift and after having created us you have given us into keeping of your Son, Jesus.

Fill our minds with His truth and our hearts with His love that in the Spirit we may be bonded together into a community of faith, a parish family, a caring people. We commit ourselves to be good stewards of the gifts entrusted to us, to share our time, and our talent, our material gifts as an outward sign of the Treasure we hold, in JESUS, Amen.
