5/1/2025	HOTMA Compliance Update: New & Revised Definitions for Income Determinations	PH/HCV	This class will address the parts of HOTMA that must be implemented for all income determinations effective July 1, 2025, and later. Emphasis will be placed on the new and revised income exclusions, such as non-recurring income, student financial assistance, insurance payments/settlements, home-based care payments, and more. In addition, new definitions that impact the rent calculation process and de minimis errors will be discussed. Lastly, a brief overview will be provided on the parts of HOTMA that should have already been implemented prior to July 1, 2025, and the parts of HOTMA that PHAs have discretionary authority to implement now.	Janice Gibbons
5/8/2025	eVMS – What You Need to Know	HCV	HUD recently announced wave 3 of the eVMS rollout. What does that mean for your agency and what can you expect in the coming months? Attendees will receive a brief overview of the eVMS rollout process and will learn how to prepare for the transition. Learn what will change for agencies as they migrate from VMS to eVMS as well as eVMS requirements and reporting processes.	Kati Gray
5/15/2025	Tips for Handling Portability Problems	HCV	Portability is simple when both PHAs have policies that mesh will together. Unfortunately, that is not always the case. This class provides an overview on how to resolve problems with late payments and reports, higher payment standards, and absorptions. Critical factors impacting portability such as delays, assigning initial and receiving PHA points of contact, FHEO, VAWA, mandatory briefing information, and monitoring the process will be addressed.	Kati Gray
5/22/2025	EPIC Submissions: Activity Planning Module	PH	All PHAs are required to use the Activity Planning Module (APM) within HUD's Energy and Performance Information Center (EPIC) for the development, submission, approval, and revision of Capital Fund Program 5-Year Action Plans (Form HUD-50075.2), Budgets, and Performance & Evaluation (P&E) Reports (Form HUD-50075.1). The question is... do you know how to use it? This class focuses on the fundamentals and is designed to walk participants through the process from submission, through approval, and revision (if necessary)	Derek Antoine

7/3/2025	An Introduction to the ROSS Program	PH/MF	Are you aiming to enhance service delivery and improve the quality of life for your residents? This comprehensive overview of the HUD ROSS Program offers information on grant funding, program implementation, regulatory requirements, services provided, available resources, and program benefits. Additionally, it includes details to assist in evaluating whether applying for the grant and appointing a ROSS Coordinator would benefit your agency.	Debra Taylor
7/10/2025	HOTMA: New Income Definitions & Zero-Income Families	PH/HCV	Newly effective HOTMA income definitions will change what information you gather, verify, and include for your Zero-Income Families. Attendees will receive an overview of the applicable definitions along with new and/or updated questions you should include in your Zero-Income interviews. Additionally, this class will highlight HOTMA changes that will affect your agency's Zero-Income families, such as student financial assistance, in-kind donations, and tax refunds.	Kati Gray
7/17/2025	Firearms & Weapons in HUD Assisted Units	PH/HCV	Do individuals receiving assisted housing have the right to keep a firearm in the unit? While the Second Amendment establishes the right to bear arms, this right is not unlimited. It's important to understand how the right to bear arms and those receiving assisted housing rights coexist, differ, and intersect. Participants will receive information on the right to bear arms in HUD Assisted Units, suggested policies, and lease provisions.	Tracy Edwards-Henson
7/24/2025	HOTMA: The Contingent Worker & Annual Income	PH/HCV	Per PIH Notice 2023-38, PHAs must implement certain income and asset provisions from Sections 102 and 104 of HOTMA for all income determinations with an effective date of July 1, 2025, and later. These provisions include the addition of three new income source definitions: Day Laborer, Independent Contractor, and Seasonal Worker. This class will discuss how these new definitions will affect income inclusions and exclusions, which in turn affects the rent calculation. Examples of each category will be given including tips for verification.	Janice Gibbons
