About the Event: The Slate Valley Museum is welcoming back The Traveling Paints to partner on a series of evening art experiences, Sip & Paint on Slate, Colors of the Seasons. Over the course of 2021, the Museum will offer four events, each highlighting a different season and through that a different color of Slate Valley slate as its foundation. Attendees will be led by an instructor in making their own painting, all while sipping and enjoying the company of other aspiring artists. The event will be held on Friday, as noted below. Space is limited. Pre-registration is required. Tickets include all art materials, one beverage, and light snacks. Drinks will include wine and a selection of non-alcoholic options. Those planning to consume alcoholic beverages should come prepared to show ID.

A Note on COVID-19: Given the ongoing pandemic, attendees should note that the setup may differ from previous paint and sip events. They should be prepared to comply with measures that are in place to ensure safety and comfort for all who participate. Masks will be required when not eating or drinking, artwork stations will be located an optimal distance apart, and temperature checks will be performed before entry. When possible, the Museum will also open doors and windows to enhance ventilation.

How to Register: Please complete the following and return to: Slate Valley Museum, 17 Water St, Granville, NY 12832. You can also register by calling Wendy at 518-642-1417.
