

To-Go PanHolder (Pan-Rail) - 43"

Food Service / Bar Equipment

The PanHolder keeps your work or cooking area organized and efficient. It is designed to hold 1/3rd-size steam pans.

| LENGTH | DEPTH | HEIGHT | MATERIAL            | FINISH     | COLOR  |
|--------|-------|--------|---------------------|------------|--------|
| 43"    | 15"   | 12"    | 304 Stainless Steel | Brushed #4 | Silver |

| FEATURES                                                                            |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Must be secured to a wall with ten (10) size #10-24 screws. Hardware included.      |
| The PanHolder can be integrated with a San Jamar Ticket Rail no wider than 43".     |
| Item will have protective film on some sides, which needs to be removed before use. |
|                                                                                     |
|                                                                                     |
|                                                                                     |
|                                                                                     |
|                                                                                     |
|                                                                                     |
|                                                                                     |

VIEW PANHOLDER
ONLINE

| WEIGHT (LB) | WEIGHT (KG) |
|-------------|-------------|
| 12.06       | 5.47        |