A Vision for Business

Century is centered around three basic principles. The first is to view business through the eyes of stewards rather than owners. Secondly, we place great value on the many relationships begun and built through business. And lastly, Century is committed to supporting and reinforcing the time-honored values of faith and family.

As stewards ...

...it is our foremost responsibility to use the resources entrusted to us to bless the lives of others. This includes our customers, vendors, employees, and community. We recognize that in terms of opportunity and wealth, we have been given far more than many individuals in our world today. The ability and privilege of participating in the marketplace is a gift, from which we are called to share generously.

Our business relationships ...

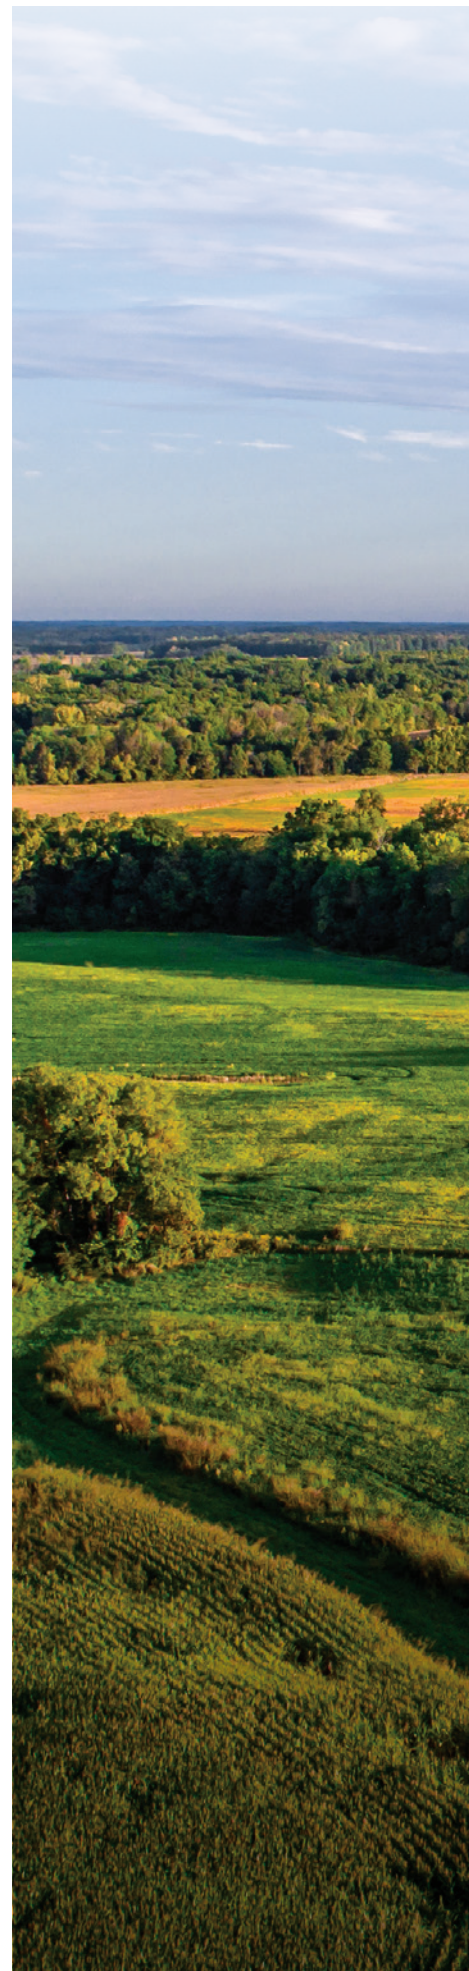

... must benefit others just as much – if not more – than they do Century. We want to build our success on a foundation of excellent customer service, on-time delivery, product and price value, innovative designs, and custom capabilities. We will do our best to be a valued partner in the success of your business. Building friendships and trust through every transaction, email, or conversation is a responsibility and privilege not to be taken lightly.

Faith and family ...

... are what guide Century in an increasingly chaotic, confusing world. Ultimately, our goal is to show a better Way by sharing the peace and joy that come from knowing the Savior of the world. While we do not leverage faith for business, we do want integrity and character to be at the core of our business practices, of how we treat others. Century is to be an avenue through which we can encourage thriving families, the building blocks of a healthy society.

To our current customers, thank you for giving us the opportunity to serve you. For those considering Century products, we look forward to earning that business. We invite you to join the Century community, as we work together to better our respective corners of the world.

Signature Series products are crafted from solid maple, a hardwood known for its smooth grain, and timeless beauty. Each piece showcases exceptional durability and high-end craftsmanship, making it the perfect choice for those who value premium quality and enduring style.

Cascade Series products are built using premium edge-banded Baltic Birch plywood, for a clean and refined appearance, making this series ideal for those seeking durability and style at a mid-tier price point.

Edge Series products are constructed from premium Baltic Birch plywood without edge banding, emphasizing simplicity, functionality, and durability at a lower price point.

Not all Century product lines are available in these three series. For details on availability, refer to the individual product pages in this catalog or visit centurymade.com for the latest information.
