Excerpt from Sunday's Gospel: "Jesus said to them, "Amen, I say to you, tax collectors and prostitutes are entering the kingdom of God before you. When John came to you in the way of righteousness, you did not believe him; but tax collectors and prostitutes did. Yet even when you saw that, you did not later change your minds and believe him" (Matt. 21:31-32).

All are invited to the Archdiocese of Mobile's Festival of Ministries, Wednesday, October 14th at Corpus Christi Parish! Meet representatives from Catholic and nonprofit ministries, learn more about their important work and discover volunteer opportunities to engage in the mission that Jesus is calling us to in our community. Come see how your time and talents can make a difference as we join together in mission. Mass will be celebrated at 5:30PM by Archbishop Mark S. Rivotuso, followed by the festival. Refreshments will also be available. Visit mobarch.org for more information.

More information to follow re: follow-up dates taking part in the Dothan Deanery.

At some point, there will be a sign-up sheet in front of the church for people to sign up to disperse candy. You don't have to decorate your trunk to give candy.

Pope Leo XIV special intentions

Each year, the Holy Father asks for our prayers for a specific intention each month. You are invited to answer the Holy Father's request and to join with many people worldwide in praying for this intention each month. From time to time, the Holy Father may add a second prayer intention related to current events or urgent needs, like disaster relief. The second prayer request will help mobilize prayer and action related to the urgent situation.

The Holy Father has entrusted these intentions in a particular way to the Pope's Worldwide Prayer Network, an organization that works to encourage Christians to respond to the Pope's appeal and to deepen their daily prayer. You can find more information about the Pope's Worldwide Prayer Network on their website. (The Pope's Worldwide Prayer Network will also publish any urgent prayer intentions of the Holy Father as soon as they are received from the Holy See.)

For the care of water

Let us pray for a just and sustainable management of water, a vital resource, so that everyone may have equal access to it. Excerpted from usccb.org/prayers/popes
