From the Pastor

Friends in Christ,

Christ our Savior is born!

I absolutely love this time of year. The music, the lights, the spirit in the air... all of it! And I hope that amidst the busyness of the holiday season, all of you get a chance to rest, relax, enjoy time with family, and once again marvel at the wonderful news of Christ's birth and what it means for us. Redemption.

There is a simple innocence and holiness in the Christmas story that we so desperately need in our lives. And while the journey to Bethlehem was not what Mary and Joseph may have wanted for the child they were bringing into the world... everything turned out well in the end. For me, this is a reminder that all of the different journeys we may be on in this life have the same ultimate destination. Life everlasting.

In the midst of news of war, violence, suffering, struggle... a simple story of a baby being born changes everything. Jesus' birth is that constant reminder that God is present and is forever working towards redeeming this broken world. So as you hear that ancient story with its tidings of good news and great joy... may your heart be filled with love and gratitude for what God has done for us.

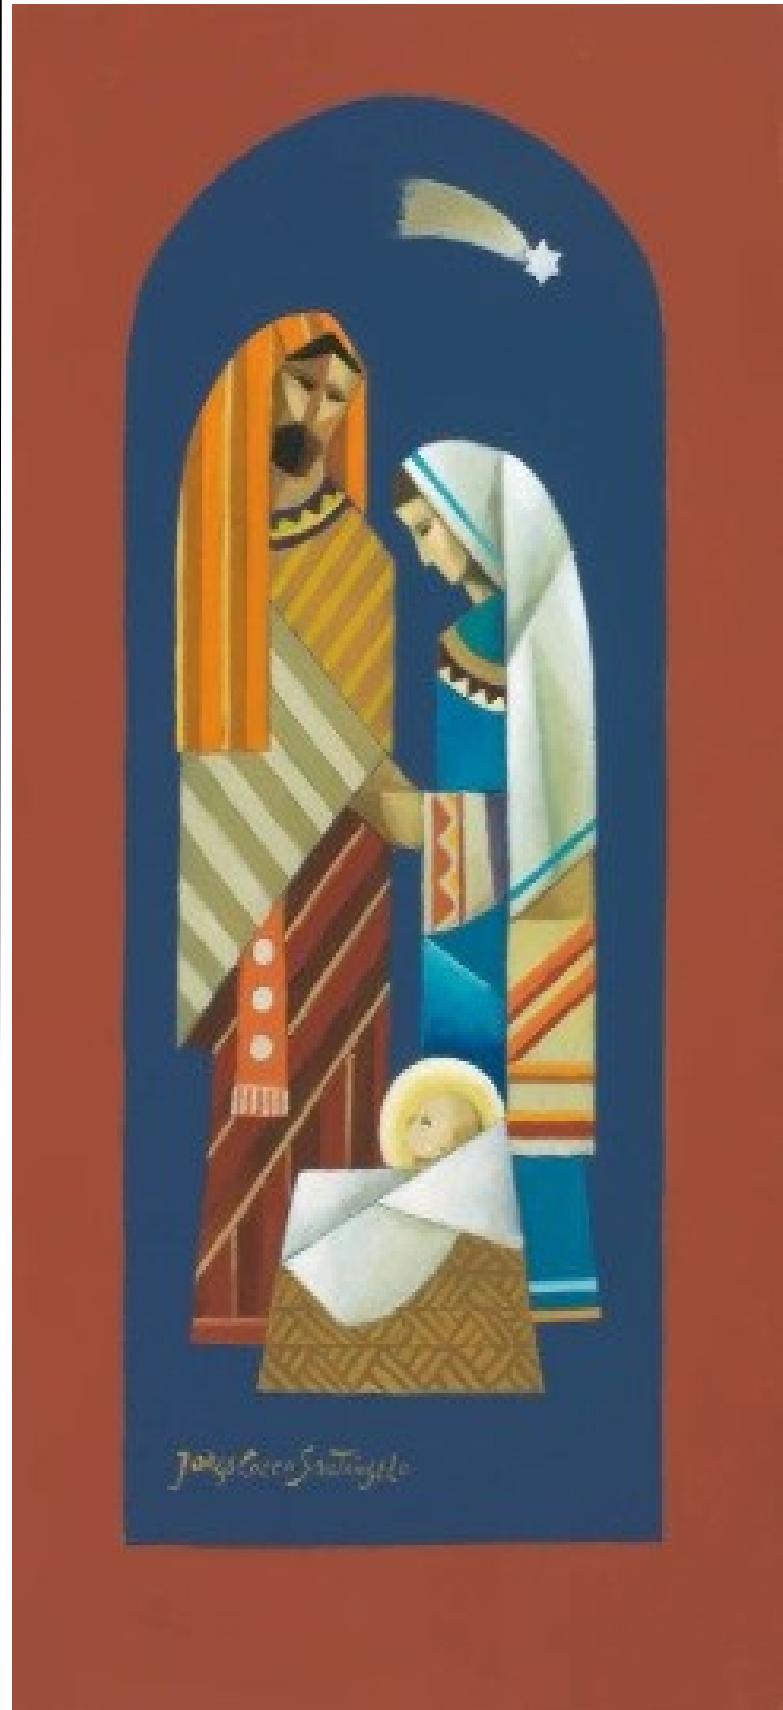

Grace and Peace,

Pastor Jon

Caring Friends Celebrates Christmas in Style

On December 16 Caring Friends celebrated Christmas with a luncheon here at CSLC. It was a wonderful time to gather, enjoy food and fellowship, and sing carols together. Caring Friends is a ministry that involves visiting, doing things for people and just being together and being their friend. We go to Care Centers, homes, and more. If you are interested in being a part of this, you can contact Debbie Erickson 612-386-0196 or Nancy Sacco at 783-2040. We would love to have you on our team.
