- 1.) Semi-Annual Financial Report- Presented by Mary E. McHugh, Director of Finance.

Ms. McHugh provided a financial overview of each of the funds: the General Fund; the Enterprise Fund; Parks, Streets, and Fuel Tax Fund; and the Operational Street Fund. She identified rising fuel costs and legal fees as 2 challenges/risks that the City is facing, and made recommendations as to how legal fees could be reduced going forward.

After concluding the semi-annual financial review, Ms. McHugh went on to talk about the Streiler Planning accounts payable issue that first arose in April. She said that in late July the state auditor received a whistleblower complaint regarding Streiler Planning conflict of interest. She went on to say that the state auditor called the City to share details of the complaint and investigate the case, and further stated that after reviewing the facts, it was determined that there was no conflict of interest. Ms. McHugh also said that the state auditor's office said the case is closed and there will be no further action. In addition, Ms. McHugh said the $1800 in question has been outstanding since April, and recently an anonymous donor has paid that invoice. She concluded by stating that the City now considers the case closed.
