

The Foristell “Divergabout” is open!

Since August 20th, the Foristell “Divergabout” (aka diverge about) has been open and circulating in the design’s intended configuration. There is a lot of striping and signing still to complete and finishing touches to the islands, medians, etc. Here is the display showing the final traffic pattern: Improve I-70 Warrenton to Wentzville Foristell Interchange Construction Phasing
