WINE MUSINGS...

(The why behind our what)

Welcome to a list of some of our favorite things! Bubbles are a fit for every occasion- great and small, serious and frivolous. Rosé is all day. We have wines of historical importance and wines with quaffability. They are fun and sometimes serious.

Like our dining menu; we celebrate the farmers, artisans, and purveyors who pay respect to the land. The wines we pick are not only delicious but practice sustainability. We choose our list with at least sustainable/organic practices—with a heavy lean into lower intervention wines: practices that are so old school that they are new again.

JEAN-FRANÇOIS ET ANNE GANEVAT

For adventurous drinkers who like their wine weird, precise, and absolutely unforgettable, Jean-François Ganevat produces wines that embody the best of what the Jura has to offer: mineral, acid-driven and deeply soulful.... Think Black Flag meets Etta James.

Tucked in the French Alps between Burgundy and Switzerland, Jean-François and his sister Anne farm over a dozen local varieties (Savagnin, Poulsard and Trousseau to name a few), following biodynamic principles to craft otherworldly wines utterly unique to the region.

"Low-intervention" winemaking is the central ethos of the domaine, but that doesn't mean the wines are left to their own devices. Jean-François handles each individual bottling like an Octopus tends to her brood... long term care and lovingly meticulous attention to detail.

Confucius says "Seek Happiness, Drink Ganevat"

COMANDO G... +

If Garnacha moved to the high mountains and took up a life of monastic purity and soulful introspection, the wines of Comando G are what you'd get.

A project cofounded by young Spanish wine makers, Dani Landi and Fernando Garcia, in the commune of Sierra de Gredos on the outskirts of Madrid, Comando G seeks to redefine what we know about Garnacha. Biodynamic farming, high-elevation old vines and single vineyard bottlings all contribute to the strength and purity of Comando G's wines. Compared to some of the most revered examples of Pinot Noir and Syrah, their Garnacha is a delicate balance of structure and freshness.

Powerful, Precise and Elegant, like a Leopard in a Tuxedo.
