Protection of Children:

Diocesan policies and procedures currently in place seek to protect, enhance and, in some cases, restore the trust that our faith calls for between agents of the church and the children and adolescents entrusted to our care. In accordance with the Charter for the Protection of Children and Young People passed by the U.S. bishops in Dallas, the Diocese of Jackson wishes to encourage any victim of sexual abuse by a member of the Catholic Clergy to come forward and begin the healing process. When an allegation is found to be credible, counseling will be offered, so that the healing process can begin in accord with our present diocesan policy. We encourage any victim to contact Jenifer Jenkins, Coordinator of Victim Assistance & Office of Protection of Children and Safe Environments at 601-960-8471. To report an allegation of abuse or mishandling of allegations of sexual abuse by a bishop, please call 1-800-276-1562 or visit reportbishopabuse.org.

Steubenville 2026

Our hearts are full after an incredible weekend at Steubenville 2026! The love of God was felt in so many ways, and the Holy Spirit moved powerfully among our youth. Together we laughed, cried, prayed, adored our Lord, sang, danced, and praised His holy name. Father Sanchez, Gary Taylor, and I (Jennifer Spencer) were truly blessed to witness these remarkable young men and women grow in their faith and share their hearts with one another. Their openness, joy, and love for Christ filled us with hope for the future of our Church. A heartfelt thank you to everyone who made this retreat possible through your generous donations, countless hours of planning and service, and, most importantly, your prayers. Your support allowed our youth to experience a life-changing encounter with Christ. Please continue to keep them in your prayers as they carry the fire of the Holy Spirit back to our parish and into their daily lives. "Come, Holy Spirit."

Ushers are valuable! They are there to greet the congregants, assist with seating, taking up the collection and tidying up the church after Mass. We have a solid "core" of ushers but could use more. If you can serve as an usher or are interested in learning more about it, please contact the church office
