London

London, a city steeped in history and brimming with cultural treasures, offers an unforgettable journey through time and tradition. From the moment travelers set foot in this iconic metropolis, they are greeted by images of grandeur, from the towering spires of Westminster Abbey to the majestic silhouette of Buckingham Palace. UNESCO World Heritage sites such as the Tower of London and the Royal Observatory in Greenwich stand as testaments to the city's rich heritage, inviting visitors to delve into centuries of royal history and scientific discovery. Beyond its historic landmarks, London is known for its energy and diversity. A stroll through Hyde Park or Hampstead Heath provides a welcome respite from the urban hustle, offering a breath of fresh air amidst lush greenery and scenic vistas. Meanwhile, the vibrant streets of Borough Market beckon with a tantalizing array of flavors, showcasing London's multicultural tapestry through its diverse culinary offerings. For those with a penchant for retail therapy, Oxford Street and Knightsbridge offer a shopping extravaganza like no other. From high-end boutiques to luxury brands and department stores, including the iconic Harrods, these bustling thoroughfares cater to every style and taste. London's cultural scene is equally captivating, with world-class museums, theaters, and entertainment venues at every turn. History enthusiasts can immerse themselves in the Tudor era at the Globe Theater, where Shakespeare's timeless plays come to life in an authentic setting. Meanwhile, Harry Potter aficionados can embark on a magical journey behind the scenes at Warner Bros Studio, discovering the wizarding world's secrets and marveling at iconic film sets and props. In every corner of London, from its historic streets to its modern marvels, the city offers a kaleidoscope of experiences that promise to captivate and inspire travelers from around the globe.

DAY 2: London

There is plenty of action in store for guests on this first full day in England. Following a hearty breakfast, they will head to Victoria Coach Station for an all-day tour to Windsor, Stonehenge, Lacock, and Bath. After their return, a late dinner (and maybe a drink!) at a lively pub or restaurant is great way to end the day before heading back to the hotel for the night.

Windsor, Stonehenge, Lacock, and Bath Tour With Fish and Chip Lunch

This day-long tour takes visitors to some of the best-loved sights in England. Perched high above the Thames, Windsor Castle is the largest continuously occupied castle in the world. Starting early, guests can explore the building and St. George's Chapel with few other visitors around. They will then visit the town, and take a scenic drive through Runnymede, where King John signed the Magna Carta. The tour heads to the iconic and mysterious Stonehenge in Salisbury - one of the most famous prehistoric monuments in the world. The next stop is Lacock in the Cotswolds, one of England's most picturesque villages, where guests will lunch at a 14th-century inn. Then it is time to explore these quaint surroundings that have provided the backdrop for movies like 'Harry Potter and the Philosopher's Stone!' The final stop is at the UNESCO-listed Georgian city of Bath. After a panoramic city tour, there will still be plenty of time to shop and partake of afternoon tea in the Pump Rooms, before returning to London.

DAY 3: London

On the last full day in London, it's time to dig deeper and discover what the city is all about! After breakfast, guests will head out on a tour of London which includes afternoon tea. The evening is spent at leisure, dining at one of the many fantastic establishments in the city and exploring its vibrant neighborhoods for one last time before departing for Paris on the next day.

Magic of London Including Afternoon Tea

This is the quintessential London tour, from heritage sites and historic traditions, sans the crowds! Starting at St Paul's Cathedral, guests will have the chance to appreciate the experience in peace and tranquility, being the first tour group to be let inside. On Sundays, when viewing is restricted, guests have the opportunity to sit in on a service. With a photo stop outside the imposing Westminster Abbey, it's time to witness the Changing of the Guard at Buckingham Palace. Later in the afternoon, the tour goes to the Tower of London where guests can view the Crown Jewels and the White Tower, where the Royal Armouries are housed. Afterward, a boat cruise on the River Thames lightens the mood, before a jaunt to the famous Harrods for afternoon tea. This is the authentic English tea experience, alongside homemade scones with preserves and clotted cream, plus a glass of Harrods prosecco. Afterwards, you are free to explore the famous department store and the city. (Please note that Changing of the Guards at Buckingham Palace is subject to availability. Lunch is not included in the tour.)

Paris

Paris, the enigmatic and iconic City of Light, exudes timeless charm along the romantic banks of the Seine River. Its streets are adorned with quaint cafés, elegant tree-lined avenues, and bustling riverside promenades, creating an enchanting atmosphere that has inspired poets, artists, and lovers for centuries. Paris is not merely a city but a cultural epicenter that has spearheaded revolutions in art, fashion, gastronomy, and cinema, shaping the world's cultural landscape. Among Paris's treasures are its world-renowned museums, including the Louvre, home to masterpieces such as Leonardo da Vinci's "Mona Lisa" and Eugène Delacroix's "Liberty Leading the People." Strolling through the Louvre's hallowed halls is a journey through centuries of artistic brilliance, offering a glimpse into humanity's creative spirit. In Paris, every corner tells a story and one can savor the simple pleasure of a coffee at a quintessential Parisian café while watching the world go by. Artists sketching the majestic Arc de Triomphe or fashionistas strolling down the illustrious Champs-Élysées add to the city's vibrant tapestry of life. In the words of Voltaire, Paris truly embodies "the best of all possible worlds," offering a harmonious blend of history, romance, and modernity. Whether wandering through the charming streets of Montmartre, admiring the grandeur of Notre-Dame Cathedral, or immersing oneself in the bohemian ambiance of the Latin Quarter, every moment in Paris is imbued with a sense of magic and wonder. With its rich cultural heritage and timeless beauty, Paris remains an irresistible destination for travelers seeking to experience the essence of French art de vivre.

DAY 4: Arrival in Paris

This morning, it's time to leave London behind and head to the 'City of Light'! After breakfast, guests will be transported to St Pancras Station to board the train to Paris. Having checked into the hotel in Paris, it's time to head out in to the city with travelers' open 48-hour voucher for the Tootbus Paris. Then get ready for an evening out on the town with an Eiffel Tower dinner at Madam Brasserie, followed by a Seine River cruise and a Moulin Rouge show!

2-Day Paris Discover Hop-On Hop-Off Sightseeing Tour

Enjoy Paris's most famous sights from the comfortable seats inside or on the open top deck of the hop-on hop-off Tootbus. Learn local history and trivia from the Tootbus's entertaining and informative audio commentary, which provides colorful details throughout the route.

Eiffel Tower Dinner at Madam Brasserie + Seine Cruise + Moulin Rouge with a Glass of Champagne

Paris after dark is a sight to behold! Once the sun sets, the 'City of Light' comes alive with its iconic landmarks and streets gleaming and bustling with people. Enjoy priority access to the Eiffel Tower for dinner and drinks, a one hour cruise on the Seine River with recorded commentary and the Feerie Show at Moulin Rouge (2nd show) with 1 glass of champagne.

DAY 5: Paris

With the Paris Pass, guests can spend the morning exploring the sights, sounds and tastes of Paris as they choose. From buttery croissants at neighborhood boulangeries to the chestnut groves of Luxembourg Gardens, Paris offers a myriad of attractions and experiences. In the afternoon, it's time for guests to roll up the sleeves and learn to make macarons, guided by a Parisian chef. The evening is free for more exploration with plenty to choose from, such as a late night burlesque show at Le Lido, a fine dinner at a Michelin-rated restaurant, or simply a romantic walk along the Seine.

Macaron Cooking Class in Paris

For those who have always wanted to whip up tasty and beautiful macarons in a jiffy, this masterclass is just the thing. An experienced French chef hands guests pointers in his own home and teaches them how to bake the perfect macarons. At the end of the evening, guests can leave with their own delectable creations, as well as recipe cards to recreate the treats back home like a pro!

DAY 6: Paris

Setting out bright and early for the all-day tour of Loire Valley, guests can look forward to being chauffeured around magnificent chateaus and royal residences. Once the tour concludes, guests return to Paris in time for dinner and to experience their last night in this eclectic city before leaving the next day.

Private Versailles and Giverny Full Day Tour

The tour begins in Giverny with a visit to a local church painted by Monet, followed by a stop at Monet's tomb and the former Cafe Baudy, frequented by American Impressionists like Whistler, Metcalf, Robinson, and Cassatt, as well as Monet's friends Renoir, Rodin, and Cézanne. The barn behind the cafe, used as a studio in winter, can be seen. Next, the tour explores Monet's Water Garden, inspired by Japanese prints, and the Flower Garden with its colorful, tiered flowerbeds. At Monet's house, visitors will see the blue room, family living areas, bedrooms, dining room, and kitchen, ending at Monet's final studio, now a gift shop. On the way to Versailles, the tour passes Route des Crêtes for views of the Seine Valley and makes a brief stop in Vetheuil, where Monet lived. In Versailles, the guide recommends a local French bistro for lunch (not included) before a detailed tour of the palace, including the Royal Chapel, King's Grand Apartment, Hall of Mirrors, War Room, Queen's Grand Apartment, and more. The tour concludes with a walk through the gardens and a drive-by of the Grand Trianon and Petit Trianon before returning to Paris.

DAY 7: Paris

It's time to bid adieu to this whirlwind tour as guests meet their private driver and are transported to the airport. As the flight takes off, they take home fantastic memories of their adventures in London and Paris!
